MRS. ISABELLA MARTIN GRANTED NEW TRIAL

FIRST MAYOR OF ALAMEDA WILL WED WIDOW

Mrs. Anna R. Sizer to Be the Bride of Politician on Tomorrow Evening.

BRIDE-TO-BE NOTED FOR YEARS AS BEAUTY

Couple Will Spend Honeymoon in Del Monte and Return to Encinal City.

E. K. Taylor, former state senator and first mayor of Alameda, prominent attorney and politician, will be united in marriage to Mrs. Anna R. Sizer, a pretty widow, tomorrow night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Nissen, Versailles avenue and Van Buren street. The Rev. Willis M. Martin of the First Methodist Church will perform the ceremony.

The marriage of Taylor and Mrs. Sizer is of widespread interest, due to the public positions occupied by Taylor during his political career as a Republican. He served two terms in the legislature as state senator, and was the first mayor of the city of Alameda under the new charter. He also served several intermittent terms as the city attorney of Alameda.

HAS GOOD ROADS HOBBY.

Taylor has made a hobby of good roads, and secured large appropriations during his term in the Legislature for the improvement of the State highways. During his term in the Legislature he expended much of his time in an effort to secure an appropriation for the El Camino Real which extends from San Diego in the south to Sonoma county in the north.

Taylor's administration as mayor of Alameda marked an era in the progress of the city, and made almost certain the success of the Republican party in Alameda. It was during Taylor's administration as mayor that the three parks and playgrounds were purchased by the city. Taylor has been a widower for many years.

BOTH ARE PROMINENT.

Mrs. Sizer is a widow. She is a beautiful and cultured woman, and will resume her position in society upon her return from their honeymoon which will be spent at Del Monte. She has lived in Alameda many years and has been a close friend of the Taylor family.

Taylor is the son of the late Bishop William Taylor of the First Methodist church, who was one of the first settlers in the city of Alameda. He was an intimate friend of the California poet, Joaquin Miller.

The wedding ceremony will be performed at 5 o'clock tonight in the parlor of the Nissen home under a canopy of smilax and enchantress carnations. Twelve members of the immediate family have been bidden to the ceremony, which will be followed by an elaborate supper.

ATTENDANTS OF COUPLE.

E. F. Nissen will act as best man, and Mrs. E. E. Johnson as matron of honor will be the only attendant of the charming bride. Mrs. Sizer will be gowned in a rich lingerie robe over pale pink mesaline. The gown will be ornamented with rare Irish lace.

The beauty of the bride will be enhanced by the pale pink coloring, and a shower bouquet of enchantress carnations which she will carry. Her traveling dress will be of wisteria chiffon broadcloth, made in a chic fashion.

COURT HOLDS IMPROPER EVIDENCE WAS ALLOWED TO BE INTRODUCED

Decision of District Court of Appeals

Is Written by Judge Samuel P. Hall of Oakland

MRS. ISABELLA MARTIN.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Mrs. Isabella J. Martin was granted a new trial this afternoon by the District Court of Appeals.

The decision, which was written by Judge Samuel P. Hall of Oakland, was handed to the clerk of the court shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Judge Hall decides that improper evidence in the preceding trial was allowed to be introduced by the prosecution over the objections of the defense, thereby prejudicing the case of the defendant with the jury.

Judge Hall holds that a portion of "Baby John's" testimony was not proper evidence, and should not have been allowed by the trial judge.

Mrs. Martin is in the Alameda county jail under a sentence of life imprisonment.

Important Events in Martin Case

March 19, 1907.—Home of Superior Judge Frank B. Ogden in Oakland dynamited.

March 8, 1908.—"Baby John" Martin confessed to the crime in Weaverville, Trinity county, implicating Isabella J. Martin.

September 29, 1908.—Empanelment of jury to try case of Isabella J. Martin commenced in Oakland before Superior Judge William S. Wells, then of Contra Costa county.

December 15, 1908.—Jury finds defendant guilty of dynamiting Judge Ogden's home.

December 19, 1908.—Judge A. L. Frick, chief counsel for defendant, argues motion for new trial and motion to have defendant's sanity determined by a jury. Defendant sentenced to life imprisonment at San Quentin by Judge Wells. Defendant files notice of appeal to the District Court of Appeals.

November 11, 1909.—Defendant's appeal argued before District Court of Appeal by Burton Jackson Wyman, associate counsel.

March 30, 1910.—Judgment of lower court overruled by the District Court of Appeal and new trial granted.

ROOSEVELT, IS ON HIGH SEA BOUND FOR NAPLES

Sail This Afternoon for Italy and Protracted Tour of Europe.

COLONEL ACCOMPANIED BY WIFE AND CHILDREN

Family Is Given Hearty Send-Off By Egyptians and Foreigners Alike.

CUXHAVEN, Germany, March 30.—If Gifford Pinchot, former Chief of the Bureau of Forestry of the United States, sailed on the steamer President Grant to meet Mr. Roosevelt, President Grant to meet Mr. Roosevelt in Europe, he could not be found when the vessel docked here today. The purser's list does not show that he was aboard.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, March 30.—Ex-President Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt, Kermit and Miss Ethel sailed for Naples this afternoon on the steamer Prinz Heinrich.

CAIRO, March 30.—The Roosevelts were given a hearty sendoff when they left here by train for Alexandria this morning. Among the communications received by Colonel Roosevelt was one from the headquarters of the American mission thanking him for generously according to the request that he visit the mission station, also for his aid in the work of redeeming Egypt.

CROWD SEES DEPARTURE.

There was a great crowd to witness the departure of the distinguished American whose presence in the Egyptian capital has been of absorbing interest to all. Sir Eldon Gorst, British agent and consul general in Egypt, was not present, but he sent General Maxwell to pay his respects and to say that he was unable to express his appreciation of all that Mr. Roosevelt had done for the civilization of Egypt.

The Khedive sent a representative to extend his compliments to the departing guest, and the members of the diplomatic corps generally were present. As the train drew out of the station a large party of Egyptians raised a cheer.

AROUSES EGYPTIAN IRE.

CAIRO, Egypt, March 30.—Former President Roosevelt's address before the Egyptian University has aroused the extreme Nationalists to a state of fury. Seven hundred students this evening marched to his hotel and demonstrated against him, shouting "Down with autocracy! Give us a constitution!"

The demonstrators were applauded by the many spectators and some of the guests left the hotel, fearing violence. Colonel Roosevelt was not in the hotel at the time, but drove up shortly afterward. He said he had heard the noise, which reminded him of American college boys, but he had no idea that he was the cause of it.

Another protest meeting was held this evening, at which speeches less violent than at the first meeting were made. Great efforts were put forth to induce Colonel Roosevelt to attend, but he smilingly declined.

Mr. Roosevelt received an ovation as he stepped from the train at the pier station. He stopped to receive the greetings of several prominent personages and then, with the others of the party, walked briskly aboard the steamer, which was dressed in flags with the American colors flying from both mastsheads.

TRAP ELOPERS TEVIS PLANS AFTER LONG CHASE IN HILLS TO SUBMIT PROPOSAL FRIDAY

Foreman and His 15-Year-Old Sweetheart Outwitted at Camp Fire.

SAN DIEGO, March 30.—After leading a large posse of officers a perilous chase over the snow-clad mountains back of this city for more than a day, Thomas Foreman, a 17-year-old high school student, and Miss Gertrude Seifert, 15-year-old daughter of the wealthy Mr. and Mrs. John R. Seifert, who eloped before daybreak yesterday, were captured late last night at a camp fire they had built midway between Sprague's ranch and the Sweetwater river, six miles from Desereno.

Worn out by their exertions the young couple made little show of defiance when Deputy Sheriffs Charles Ellis and Sweeney overtook them, and after a few minutes' parley Foreman threw up his hands at the officer's request, remarking:

"We will go with you. We had decided to surrender anyway. It won't be for long, however. Gertrude will be of age in two years and then we shall marry despite all opposition."

After the girl had been warmed and fed the pair were brought back here in an automobile, the girl being given into the keeping of her father, and the boy being turned over to his parent. Later Foreman Sr. approached Seifert and de-

PASTORS PLAN TO PREVENT BIG BATTLE IN JULY

Attorney White to Take Prompt Action in Alameda County Courts.

DONAHUE PROMISES AID OF HIS OFFICE

First Step Will Be the Asking of Injunction Against Marathon Club.

Determined to prevent if possible the promoters of the Jeffries-Johnson fight from holding the big heavyweight battle at the Oakland Race Track Arena on the Fourth of July, under the auspices of the Marathon Athletic Club, incorporated for the occasion, or anywhere else in the county, the Church Federation of the Alameda county district has instructed its counsel, Attorney Carlos G. White, to resort to the courts.

Attorney White called on District Attorney Donahue this forenoon and conferred with him regarding the law prohibiting fights to a finish and permitting limited-round glove contests under the direction of an incorporated athletic club.

The District Attorney advised White that there was no question about the State law prohibiting fights to a finish and went over with him the section of the Penal Code covering limited-round contests, assuring the attorney for the Church Federation that his office would always be ready to assist him in any tangible legal battle for the betterment of the moral condition of the county and the prevention of law-breaking.

Immediately after the conference Attorney White announced that he would proceed without delay by resort to the law to prove the objects and status of the Marathon Athletic Club, the incorporators of which are George L. ("Tex") Rickard, John J. Gleason, R. J. Watson and Joseph E. Durham, the fight promoters.

TO ASK INJUNCTION.

Attorney White's first move will be to

Tonic Stimulant A Body Builder

A Medicine—and a Food in Liquid Form

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a liquid food, tonic and stimulant, requiring no digestion, in the form of a medicinal whiskey. Its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. Its gentle and invigorating properties influence for good every important organ in the body. It makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, be sure you get the genuine. It is an absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in large SEALED BOTTLES ONLY—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00 a large bottle. Write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for doctor's advice and an illustrated medical booklet containing testimonials and rules for health, both sent free.

TEVIS TO SUBMIT WATER PROPOSAL

Bay Cities Company to Make Proposition to Alameda City Council.

throughout Alameda, Oakland and Berkeley, starting the soliciting of contracts Monday morning.

When President Tevis first brought the proposition of supplying the bay cities with pure mountain water before their city councils, he stated that contracts would have to be secured for 1,500,000 gallons a day before it would pay the company to develop its sources. Engineer Gilman stated yesterday that their surveys had shown that this number of gallons was about the minimum amount that the company could operate its plant for.

In the conference with Mayor Hiram Johnson, Engineer Gilman said: "For the past thirty days the Bay Cities Water Company has been lending every effort and all of its resources to the city of Alameda, trying to devise a form of contract that would appeal to the residents and at the same time yield a small profit."

"We have worked day and night on this water question and are now ready to submit the proposition in its many phases to the residents of Alameda, Oakland and Berkeley. We will submit a proposition to purchase water rights in the bay cities, the latter part of this week, and our men will begin the work of getting contracts Monday morning. We will submit a proposition to the city of Alameda, for the purchase of a pure mountain supply of water at the present rate of 30 cents per thousand gallons, the rate we can decrease as the number of gallons we sell increases."

SEVERAL PLANS.

Mayor Hoy stated last night that the Bay Cities Company would lay several propositions before the City Council Friday night, namely, for the city of Alameda to purchase water rights in the bay cities, for the city of Alameda to purchase a pure mountain supply of water at the present rate of 30 cents per thousand gallons, the rate we can decrease as the number of gallons we sell increases."

President E. B. Bullock of the City Council stated that the city of Alameda will only consider the Tevis proposition on municipal ownership lines, with purchasing power being distributed system from the Tevis company.

President Bullock said yesterday: "We are waiting for the Bay Cities Company to submit a report in writing to us and after that time we will be able to tell whether or not we want its water supply. We will not join with Oakland and Berkeley in the purchase of the Peoples Water Company plant. If that is the case, we will join with Oakland and Berkeley in the purchase of the Peoples Water Company plant."

NO DIFFICULTY.

Other members of the City Council have expressed themselves in a like manner, and the Bay Cities Company expects no difficulty in procuring the desired number of contracts in this city, aggregating 1,000,000 gallons per day.

"The Tevis plan to supply Alameda with water from the Coast Range and from the twenty-six lakes in the Sierra appears to be the best plan, and the people of the city do not want to let a golden opportunity slip by. I have every faith that in the near future the city will be able to procure good mountain water for Alameda at reduced rates and in time own our own municipal system."

Engineer Gilman stated yesterday that the city would be installed by the Bay Cities Company with a chart illustrating how the increase of population in the city would decrease the water rate and allow the city to acquire its own pipes in a short time.

In form of contract that the Bay Cities Water Company will ask the residents of the bay cities to sign will start with the present rate of 30 cents per thousand gallons and will show how this rate will decrease as the number of gallons contracted for increases. Thus if one-half of the population of the city contracts for the water at the present rate, and the other residents contract for the water at a later date, the rate will be materially reduced.

L. R. Dickey, assistant manager of the Oakland office of the Bay Cities Water Company, stated yesterday that the contracts will be submitted to the people had been fully completed, and would be sent out with the canvassers Monday morning.

POSSE CAPTURES YOUNG ELOPERS

Foreman and Sweetheart Are Caught Unawares After Chase in Mountains.

clered his willingness to let the young folks marry.

"After youngsters have shown the pluck and devotion to each other that ours have it seems a pity to keep them apart," the boy's father pleaded, but the other man was firm and the little heroine will be kept in closest confinement until plans for her future can be made.

Both of the young couple were considerably the worse for wear, the boy, who attempted to lessen the hardships for his sweetheart, being the greatest sufferer. Both asserted that they will wait until they are of age before attempting another marital feat, but not a day longer. The attempted elopement was the second this year for the young people, who ran away last a few months since, escaping to Los Angeles, where they were captured, placed under arrest and brought home.

MAKES HER TERMS.

Miss Seifert insists that she remain in the United States until she is of age. She says she will do as her parents wish in all other matters, except that at least once a month she be allowed to see her sweetheart or hear from him. She is now in custody of Mrs. Chambers, matron of the county jail, but will probably be taken back to her home within a day or two.

Her youthful lover will not be prosecuted for eloping with her and for driving on the posse that sought to capture them early yesterday. He declares that he will marry Miss Seifert as soon as she is of age, and in this he has the firm backing of his father.

As matters stand now, young Foreman has the sympathy of all the members of the posse, the people of Descanso and a majority of those who know the youthful couple in this city.

"I'LL GET HER."

Refreshed after a night's rest, Foreman sat out the morning and told a reporter all about it.

"I want to get the girl," vowed Foreman, his blue eyes flashing. "You can say that I'll do that. Nothing can stop me."

Gertrude is the bravest little girl on earth. Where could you find another like her? Do you think I would give her up? No, she's all the world to me. While they say I was forced to surrender last night, they are all wrong. I could have gone much farther and kept them at bay with my rifle. I gave up on account of Gertrude, although she was willing to continue the fight."

GROWS TENDER.

Whenever the boy used the girl's name his face softened and his voice grew tender.

"This is my proposition to Mr. Seifert," explained young Foreman in an ordinary tone of voice, calmly and precisely, just as he would discuss any business matter with the very frate father of his sweetheart.

"I must secure his promise to allow me to marry Gertrude within two years and also get permission to correspond with her while she is in Germany. If he will agree to this I will make no further attempt to take her away. But if he doesn't consent, if there is any more funny business, I shall get the girl one way or another. You can depend upon that. She is the bravest and best little girl in the whole world, and I shall win her."

George Pantich, a smartly dressed youth, who was charged at Belgrade with constantly pilfering benzine from a chemist's, said he took the spirit a few drops at a time to "perfume" his clothes so that his sweetheart might believe he owned a motor car.

Bad BLOOD

"Before I began using Cascarets I had a bad complexion, pimples on my face, and my food was not digested as it should have been. Now I am entirely well, and the pimples have all disappeared from my face. I can truthfully say that Cascarets are just as advertised; I have taken only two boxes of them."

Governor Will Go East to Urge Claims Of San Francisco to the Exposition

FRANKLIN K. LANE
ACTION

Coast Metropolis Must Declare Great Fair Will Be Held There.

UNION OF ENTIRE
WEST IN CRUSADE

Congress Will Be Appealed to
By Overwhelming
Sentiment.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—About the round table in the room of the St. Francis Hotel, in the center of which was a frescoed design of columns and dome emblematic of the magical architecture of the coming Panama-Pacific fair, were gathered many of the men who are devoting themselves to the great project for 1915. Yesterday afternoon, entertaining at luncheon Governor James K. Gillett and Interstate Commerce Commissioner Franklin K. Lane as their special guests, F. J. Zeehandelaar, secretary of the Los Angeles Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, was also invited guest, Homer S. King, the President of the International Exposition, and J. H. Gillett and Interstate Commerce Commissioner Franklin K. Lane as their special guests. F. J. Zeehandelaar, secretary of the Los Angeles Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, was also invited guest, Homer S. King, the President of the International Exposition, and J. H. Gillett and Interstate Commerce Commissioner Franklin K. Lane as their special guests.

SCOTT'S OPENING SPEECH.

A. W. Scott opened the speech-making when asked by Chairman Homer S. King to explain to the guests the world's fair situation. Mr. Scott said that it was a critical moment for San Francisco. He sounded a warning in respect to the endeavors of New Orleans to obtain the national appropriation for a Panama exposition in that city. He declared that at Washington, San Francisco's contention were as yet unheard.

COMMISSIONER LANE'S ADVICE.

When called upon to speak Commissioner Lane was greeted with great enthusiasm and his speech was punctuated by frequent applause.

"I declare that the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco is a certainty," counseled Mr. Lane, "and invite the world to participate in it. San Francisco is by all odds the logical, the critical place to celebrate the completion of one of man's greatest feats. If you men here today decide to have a great international fair in San Francisco you will have it."

SAN FRANCISCO'S BACKING.

"California is with you, the Pacific coast is with you, the whole west will be yours for the asking, and the whole United States, too, if you get out and get them."

"Get the whole country in favor of San Francisco and the other nations talking about it, then Congress will be only too glad to make a handsome appropriation for the building of the new international fair in San Francisco you will have it."

"Just before I started west," he continued, "a delegation from the south arrived in Washington and made display. The New Orleans proposition is the only one they know anything about back there. But that is no reason for San Francisco to give up. It is the very reason why she should increase her activity."

URGES PUBLICITY.

"You must do everything in your power at once to advertise your project to the whole world. You should establish a large publicity bureau. San Francisco has by far the best arguments behind her contention and she should publish them broadcast. Your little argument with your southern neighbors will amount to nothing when you launch out on world-wide publicity. The time is past when this is a local matter. It will not take long for San Francisco to mean more to her than one in San Diego. She can be shown that more people will go to San Diego on their roundtrip tickets to the fair in San Francisco than would go directly there if she were to have the exposition."

"As soon as the united west goes behind you, the disgruntled few in the southern part of the State will fall into line. Make up your minds to have a great exposition here and it will take only a short time to get the whole country behind you. I believe the President of the United States is with you now."

In closing Mr. Lane urged his hearers to spread the news of San Francisco's intention to the world. He bade them select strong and representative men to go to Washington who should be led by men who had been to Washington and were fitted with the knowledge of the best way of dealing with congress.

GILLETT WILL GO EAST.

Governor Gillett followed heartily endorsing San Francisco's project and said he was willing to lend a commission to Washington and do what he could toward influencing congress. He spoke of San Francisco's right to have the Panama-Pacific Exposition in an ordinary tone of voice, calmly and precisely, just as he would discuss any business matter with the very frate father of his sweetheart.

"I must secure his promise to allow me to marry Gertrude within two years and also get permission to correspond with her while she is in Germany. If he will agree to this I will make no further attempt to take her away. But if he doesn't consent, if there is any more funny business, I shall get the girl one way or another. You can depend upon that. She is the bravest and best little girl in the whole world, and I shall win her."

George Pantich, a smartly dressed youth, who was charged at Belgrade with constantly pilfering benzine from a chemist's, said he took the spirit a few drops at a time to "perfume" his clothes so that his sweetheart might believe he owned a motor car.

THE PROPER CARE OF DILCLOTH

Oilcloth should not be swept with a straw broom or scrubbed with a stiff brush. Instead, sweep with a soft hair brush and wipe off with lukewarm water in which has been dissolved a teaspoonful of Gold Dust washing powder and rinse with clear, warm water. Where oilcloth is losing its shiny surface, wash as above, then dissolve a little ordinary glue in a pint of hot water. At night go over the whole carefully with a flannel dipped in glue water. Choose a dry day and by morning the glue will be hard; it will give a fine gloss and make the oilcloth wear much longer.

Claims of San Francisco

San Francisco has a claim on this exposition that no other city can have.

You fought for the digging of the canal and you will celebrate its completion.

The Panama canal will do more for freight rates for California than the Interstate Commerce Commission can do in twenty years.

The Panama canal will do more for the solution of the problem of labor on the California farms than the Immigration Bureau has ever done.

The Panama canal is going to open the Pacific ocean to San Francisco, and San Francisco is going to celebrate its opening.

Line up the cities of the east behind you in your fight, and send men to Washington who have claws, and can reach in and get something. Ask Congress to do what it ought to do, and I think Congress will do it.—Interstate Commerce Commissioner Franklin K. Lane.

TO BEGIN CAMPAIGN FOR FUND TO AID INGURABLES

King's Daughters Will Make Effort to Shelter Unfortunate Men and Women.

ENTHUSIASM SPEAKS
FOR GREAT SUCCESS

Many Charity Workers Attend Annual Easter Reception at Oakland Home.

For the purpose of organizing a campaign to raise $100,000 for the new building of the King's Daughters of California Home for Incurables located at 3800 Broadway, a special meeting has been called for Friday afternoon by the directors of the institution, to be held in the directors' room of the home. Friday plans will be made for the raising of that sum, and the cooperation of the charity workers of the county is asked in this enterprise, which will seek to more comfortably shelter the unfortunate men, women and children who are at present housed in inadequate buildings.

Since the earthquake the directors of the home have been working zealously to accumulate enough money with which to erect a suitable building for the stricken. The women who are directing the affairs of the institution are recognized in this community for their keen judgment and ability to carry out their ambitions regarding the hospital, and they are confident that the generous people of this city who respond liberally to their appeals, which will aid the incurables.

The enthusiasm and usefulness of the board of directors and the members of the King's Daughters of California Home for Incurables has marked their efforts in the past and it is predicted that the new undertaking to raise $100,000 will be realized within a very short time.

CAMPAIGN A VICTORY.

Under the direction of Mrs. Matilda Brown, president of the Home, and the board of directors, the campaign will be a victory and the new building for which they have been working for years will be erected.

Subscriptions may be sent to any one of the members of the board of directors. They are:

Mrs. Matilda Brown, Mrs. C. C. Clay, Mrs. A. H. Hill, Mrs. H. L. Corson, Mrs. Adam Gililand, Mrs. H. M. Tenney, Mrs. C. A. Willard, Mrs. I. M. Van Slyke, Mrs. C. B. Morgan, Mrs. E. J. Brown, and Mrs. F. E. Lester.

Reception was given in the Home by the members of the King's Daughters of California Home for Incurables Circle. The function was well attended and a delightful musical and literary program was given over which Mrs. Brown presided.

DENISON WILL SPEAK ON OAKLAND

The Chamber of Commerce Is Preparing Data to Furnish to Bond Buyers.

Secretary A. A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce is scheduled to speak before the Tri-Rotary Club Thursday evening on the subject, "Oakland and the Panama-Pacific International Exposition."

Denison will discuss the attitude of Congressmen Joseph N. Knowland and Charles W. McNary in regard to that event and the necessity of establishing the prestige of the two ports in relation to the opening of the canal.

F. J. Zeehandelaar, secretary of the Los Angeles Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, was also invited guest, Homer S. King, the President of the International Exposition, and J. H. Gillett and Interstate Commerce Commissioner Franklin K. Lane as their special guests.

190,000 MAY WALK OUT WHEN COAL MINERS STRIKE

President Lewis Declares Pennsylvania and Illinois Will Be Tied Up.

EXECUTIVES WORKING TO CHANGE SITUATION

Temporary Scale of Wages May Be Accepted By Pittsburg Workmen.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 30.—The officers and members of the national executive board of the United Mine Workers of America arrived at noon today from Cincinnati and this afternoon held a meeting to discuss the details of the campaign the miners in the several districts are making for increased wages and improvement of working conditions.

"This may go into effect until 11 o'clock tomorrow night, and during tomorrow much may happen that will change the whole aspect of the situation."

"Therefore the miners' officers today expect the executive board meeting to adjourn tonight and reconvene in a few days for the purpose of directing or advising the miners who shall not have signed new contracts with the operators and are on strike."

190,000 MAY STRIKE.

CINCINNATI, March 30.—While the plan adopted by the coal miners' international convention will result in no country-wide strike of the bituminous miners, President J. L. Lewis of the miners declared today, just before leaving for Indianapolis, "that Pennsylvania and Illinois will be completely tied up." The miners in the two districts number 190,000.

"This may go into effect until 11 o'clock tomorrow night, and during tomorrow much may happen that will change the whole aspect of the situation."

WILL CONTINUE.

PITTSBURGH, March 30.—A strike of union coal diggers of the Pittsburgh district may be averted when the scale expires at midnight tonight and the miners probably will continue work under a temporary scale calling for a five per cent increase pending a settlement of local difficulties. Chief among them, being the introduction of new explosives.

President Feehan of the Pittsburgh district No. 6, United Mine Workers of America, arrived from Cincinnati today and holds out hope for a settlement.

KNOWLAND'S BILL STRONGLY URGED

Chamber of Commerce Endorses Measure to Bar Combines in Traffic.

Resolutions were adopted at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday endorsing the attitude of Congressman Joseph N. Knowland in regard to the Interstate Commerce bill, designed to prevent a combination of land and water carriers and to do away with a monopoly.

A. Denison, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will write Knowland, telling of the action of the committee. The members of the committee present at the meeting yesterday were H. C. Capwell, J. H. Clay, C. M. Wood, W. E. Gibson, Walter H. MacKay and F. A. Leach.

A report from Harry A. Lane, of the Alameda County Commission, in charge of the Chamber of Commerce work in Los Angeles, has reported to the Oakland chamber that a large number of tourists are now coming from the East.

These Lane is furnishing with a letter of introduction to the officers of the Oakland Chamber, and it is probably that they will be received here.

Mr. Otto West

The man who makes those pretty waists for 98c from materials bought in this store, will take a limited number of orders next Saturday. The demand for these waists is so great that Mr. West has great difficulty in supplying it. For weeks—as many disappointed women know—he has been unable to take any new orders. But now he has so nearly finished the work on hand that he has decided to take a few next Saturday, with the distinct understanding that the orders he takes then must be made from materials bought from us or that day.

GOV. GILLETT DISCLAIMS ELLERY AS A RELATIVE

Lure of the Appellate Court Bench Is Strong. Gossip of the Candidates and Their Latest War Talk

Governor Gillett rises to make a few remarks on the gubernatorial aspirations of State Engineer Nathaniel Ellery to the end that this new aspirant is not his brother-in-law nor any relation by marriage or blood, all the numerous statements to the contrary. All he knows of the candidacy of another member of the state officialdom is what he has read in the newspapers. Perhaps it is a little rough, but he adds that the "boys" in the state capital regard the whole matter in the light of a joke.

Is No Relative

"I do not know that Ellery is or is not a candidate for governor," said Governor Gillett yesterday. "I do know, however, that he is not related to me by blood, marriage or adoption. All I know about Ellery's alleged ambitions is that I have seen the newspaper reports of an announcement he was supposed to have made in Los Angeles."

I am not in a position to deny that portion of the report. I do deny, though, that Ellery is my brother-in-law or that I have any interest in his candidacy, if he is a candidate.

"The boys at the capital told me yesterday that they had heard Ellery mentioned as a possible candidate, but that they had dismissed it as a joke and that they had heard nothing of it for a month. I had never heard of it until I saw it in the papers, and I confess that I thought it a joke then."

Appellate Bench

It has been settled that the Lincoln-Roosevelt League's executive committee will hold another session on Saturday for the understood purpose of completing its ticket. There are already a flock of aspirants for the places on the Appellate Court bench because of the expiring of the term of Justice Cooper. One of those frequently and favorably mentioned is Judge Frank B. Ogden of this city. He has the warm support of Mayor Mott, a member of the league's executive committee and many prominent members of the league. Other aspirants are Judge Lennon of San Rafael, already endorsed by the Building Trades Council of his home city, and logically his friends assert for this reason sure of an endorsement by Mayor McCarthy and the labor people of San Francisco.

Cooper's Position

The San Francisco Examiner this morning says:

"Some mixup has been occasioned by the uncertainty of Judge Cooper's politics. He was elected as a Democrat four years ago, and in the lottery for place drew the short term. He defeated Carroll Cook, who was hardly popular at the time. But since his election it has been told that Judge Cooper has abandoned the Democratic party and he is accused of voting against Bryan. So it was stated early in the campaign that Cooper wanted the Republican nomination. Perhaps it was this understanding that drew from the Woodland Democrat these cruel, cruel words:

Elected as Democrat

"Judge Cooper, who was elected as a Democrat to a position on the Appellate bench, is now seeking a nomination for the same position from the Republicans. Cooper is the man who has done all he can to keep Rust out of the penitentiary, who turned Schmitz loose and who refused to do as much for poor old Coffey, as though the evidence which sent him to the penitentiary was nothing like as strong as that presented against Rust Schmitz and Calhoun. It is very gratifying that such a man is not seeking a Democratic nomination."

"It will not be 'gratifying' for the editor of the militant 'Democrat' to learn that Judge Cooper has shifted the political cut that he now is seeking a Democratic nomination. And, under these circumstances, will the unkind remarks be withdrawn?"

War Trumpets Sound

War talk is heard from the camp of the Anderson backers over the claims of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League as to the newspaper support of the various candidates. They allege that Johnson has the support of 116 papers, Anderson a few less than half a dozen and Curry about 30. Curry's men keep out of the fracas, but from the Anderson quarters the statement is made that the newspapers stand lined up, figuring 113 in the list, as Anderson 47, Johnson 21, Curry 9 Stanton 4 and 22 neutral. In the absence of anything else more pertinent this is the battling point just now with the rest of the candidates to be heard from on the subject.

Judge John Works, the league candidate for the United States senatorship, yesterday outlined his platform. In that statement he emphasized the fact that the Lincoln-Roosevelt league's fight was to be made in the Republican party by Republicans instead of against the Republican party, which he specifically absolved from the responsibility for the evils of Aldrichism, Cannonism and the "subserviency of the judiciary to the machine." These, he declared, were the inevitable outcome of the deadly system of politics ruling this state.

In Sonoma County

Sonoma county is getting ready for a spirited senatorial scrap between Senator Walter F. Price and Assemblyman W. B. Whitney of Healdsburg, both of whom yearn for the Republican nomination. As Price has a job as expert for the State Board of Examiners, he is at something of a disadvantage in the race, and Whitney will have the league backing. The Democrats say Assemblyman Louis Julliard can beat either Whitney or Price.

Hiram Johnson will speak tonight in Alameda and tomorrow night in Niles. Judge Works and A. J. Wallace, his campaign mates, have been busy making acquaintances in the Bay section. On Monday they were entertained in Oakland by Mayor Mott, Senator Stanton, Guy C. Earl and others and yesterday George L. Carter, George E. Crothers and Supervisor Paul Bancroft took them on a trip to view the harbor, tidal creek and the Mission.

Anderson and Curry were both in Sacramento yesterday.

Miller Out of It

Senator Ed Miller of Visalia, around whom there has been a constant fight lately, announced in no weak terms last night at his home that he is not, never has been and never will be a candidate for the governorship on the Democratic ticket. That would seem to end the matter so far as that point is concerned, but there are a lot of other things to be considered, and it is not likely that Bell and those of his supporters who have been doing so much talking will be benefited by the Visalia man's help.

RICHMOND ADOPTS SEWER AND WHARF

Council Takes Action Towards
Acquirement of Both.

RICHMOND, March 30.—A communication from the Point Richmond Canal and Land Company signed by H. C. Cutting, in reference to the emptying of the city's storm sewer upon lands owned by Mr. Cutting, was read at the council session.

The storm sewer for the Point side of town empties on what was marsh land just beyond the Santa Fe railroad. The land has since been acquired by the Cutting people, who are preparing to fill in all of their land. Mr. Cutting stated in his letter that the company would begin filling in that portion where the storm sewer empties in about thirty days. Mr. Cutting also suggested that the city continue the present sewer to the Cutting canal, where he would allow it to empty. City Engineer Hudson pointed out where if such an undertaking was accomplished, that at some future time the Cutting people might come along and demand the removal of the sewer or another continuance. And another thing which discouraged the undertaking was that when the sewer was at the canal, it would be below the water level, in which case pumps would be required.

The discussion of the sewer problem brought about a general discussion of the advisability of constructing a five-foot sewer through the hill which would forever settle the sewer troubles of the west side. All the members of the council expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the municipal wharf proposition, that of tunneling the hill, and at the same time take the sewer along. The council expressed the opinion that the council is ready to take up both propositions and are only awaiting the presentation of petitions from the merchants.

A motion finally prevailed that the city engineer proceed and prepare plans and specifications and estimate of cost for tunneling the hill for the construction of the five-foot sewer.

OPPOSES ISSUE OF PARK BONDS

N. K. Tidd Writes, Giving His Idea of Things as He Sees Them.

Editor TRIBUNE.—As a citizen and taxpayer for about thirty-five years, I would like to ask you to print these few lines in your paper. In the first place, I would like to ask the mayor, and also the park commission, what their idea is in bonding the city for more money for park purposes when they can't take care of the parks they have now.

The present parks, in my opinion, are garbage dumps, by the looks of them lately.

We citizens pay taxes that are high enough now, higher than any other city in California, and I would like to know how it is that these parks are not kept clean and are not properly taken care of. In half of them the grass looks as if it had not been cut for six months. If it isn't cut soon we might just as well ask the citizens to vote for bonds for jack rabbits and let them cut the way the parks look now is a disgrace to the city of Oakland; they are full of dirt and filth, for want of cleaning.

In the park on Seventh and Jefferson I have not seen a man for three or four weeks, except maybe one on one day a week, and that on Saturday.

SOMETHING "ROTTEN"
There is something rotten somewhere, as I think, the citizens pay enough taxes to keep a man at all times to care for those parks.

If a city the size of Oakland, with all of the boosting it gets, can't afford to keep a man in the parks, I guess the neighbors will have to get in on Sundays and clean them up, and give Oakland a little more boosting, the kind that will help it to get to the top of the ladder.

I have voted for bonds two or three times and I have had my taxes raised as high as I want them. I can't see what good you have done in the parks. All you have done is that I can see is to raise the salary of a few of the higher-ups, and lower the salary of a few men who were barely making a living, which I think is a disgrace to the city of Oakland.

CONCERNING SALARIES.
You have raised the superintendent of the parks' salary from $90 a month to $125, and then from $125 to $175. Just think of lowering ten or twelve men's salaries from $90 a month to $75 a day—when they work—and raising the other man's salary if he works or if he don't. Why don't you put him on day pay as well as the rest of the men and see how he likes it, for he is no better and don't even pay taxes, as quite a few of the other men do.

Furthermore, think of having a time-keeper to keep time for twelve or fifteen men and two or three bosses. There is something rotten somewhere.

If there is not a change in the parks and the system they are taking care of them, you will see where your bonds are when the citizens come to vote for the five-foot sewer, old and is only a burden on the taxpayers. Yours truly,

N. K. TIDD.

Old Watchman Falls Into Hold of Vessel

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—While walking along the deck of the steamer Kohala, lying at Santa Fe wharf, in China Basin, making his regular rounds early this morning, John Anderson, watchman 65 years old, who resides at 1719 Stanton avenue, Alameda, stumbled over a loose plank and was plunged into the hold of the vessel. With extreme difficulty Anderson made his way to the deck, where he called for help, and an ambulance was summoned, which conveyed him to the Central Emergency Hospital.

An examination showed that his left leg had been broken and that he had sustained other minor injuries.

Search Being Made For Missing Woman

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Mrs. Margaret Gallagher, 1214 Oak street, wife of Charles Gallagher, a tile setter, mysteriously disappeared from her home on Saturday night, and despite every effort of her husband and friends to locate her, she has not been found. This morning the police called at police headquarters and notified the detective bureau, furnishing a description of the missing woman to be sent to nearby points in a last hope of discovering her whereabouts. She is 32 years old, weighs 130 pounds, is five feet five inches tall and was attired in a blue dress when last seen.

OPEN AIR SCHOOLS FOR AFFLICTED PUPILS

Start to Be Made in Oakland to Test Efficiency of the Method.

DR. FOSTER URGES
ADOPTION OF PLAN

Designs for Structure to Be Submitted at the Next Meeting.

Two open air schools, for the benefit of weak and tuberculous-inclined children, will be put into operation, beginning next term, on the grounds of the Street School in East Oakland and the Cole school in West Oakland, according to the action of the Board of Education, who last evening decided to erect two temporary structures for the use of the open air schools, an experiment, to be followed by more in case the trials prove successful.

The decision was made after a lengthy discussion between the members of the board, who were meeting as a committee of the whole to discuss the matter, and Dr. M. K. Foster, who spoke at some length on the matter. Dr. Foster, who also addressed the board on the subject, speaking of the work done with the open air schools in other cities.

TEMPORARY SCHOOLS.

The schools, work on which will begin as soon as possible, will be temporary structures, each containing two rooms and capable of seating about fifty children. In this type of building the sides of each room may be raised or lowered, removed, as well as sections of the roof, leaving the place almost the same as the open air. As has been done in the East, the children will be wrapped in heavy clothes during the winter months, and the walls will be closed only in the rain. The two schools will be upgraded, any child of delicate constitution from the first to the sixth grade to receive instruction. Two teachers will probably be provided by the board for each school, and the teachers from the nearby schools will probably conduct classes in the open air buildings of the day at the open air institutions, which, it is estimated, will cost about $600 apiece.

PREVENT TUBERCULOSIS.

"We need the open air schools as a safeguard against tuberculosis," said Dr. Foster, in his address to the board last night. "For a large number of Oakland's public school children are poorly nourished, and this condition is almost certain to render them susceptible to the great white plague. The death rate in this State from consumption is appalling, seven out of every ten in this State's population dying from the disease. A number of these deaths are due to consumptives coming from other States to California, but still there are a large number of native sons who have the disease, which is very contagious."

"The open air school is the best thing we doctors know of to combat this disease in children, as our schools today are very poorly ventilated. The schools have the best of hot air equipment, but this equipment, at its best, is far from perfect. Rich food and close quarters, such as most children have, will bring their crop of consumptives, and the open air school, at any rate for the delicate child, will do much toward guarding future generations."

"Children having tuberculosis, of course, should be segregated, and a few tents in which to teach them would also be a good move. It is extremely dangerous to keep them in the schools, where they are so near to the general public. The board's views were heartily seconded by Director Evans, who urged the board to try the experiment and, if successful, recommended that open air schools be placed in different parts of the city."

UNGRADED SCHOOLS SUCCESS.

"There is no doubt that the schools have met with success in the East," said Evans, "and at the present time several California cities, including San Francisco and Alameda, are preparing to try it out. The schools, of course, would have to be ungraded at first, but I have noticed that children in ungraded schools in the country often are better advanced than those in graded city schools. This is probably because the lower classes absorb knowledge from hearing the older pupils recite. I see no reason why the idea should not be tried out."

The motion to build the two schools was made by Director Orr, and plans for the new structures will be presented at the next meeting of the board. Dr. Foster and Superintendent McElroy will consult tonight with the board on the design of the buildings, and the cost of the buildings, and arrangement of details will come up next week.

JUDGE HOLDS TRIO ON CHARGES OF MRS. KOVACS

Delaney and Allens Must Answer to Accusation of San Leandro Woman

THREE MEN PLEAD
NOT GUILTY IN COURT

Mother Denied Warrant for Alleged Kidnaping of Her
Two Children

SAN LEANDRO, March 30.—The arraignment of J. C. Delaney, an attorney of Hayward, Richard Allen and Alec Allen, whom Mrs. Mary Kovacs claims entered her premises some three miles out of Hayward last week, attempting to forcibly prevent her from returning to take possession, were held in Judge J. N. Frank's court here yesterday, the three men being held over for trial on April 7th. Delaney and Richard Allen are charged with kidnapping, and Alec Allen, who is charged with kidnapping, disturbing the peace and malicious mischief.

Alec Allen is said by Mrs. Kovacs to have entered the house early in the morning while she was driving her husband to the railroad station and persuaded the children to leave their beds, telling them that their mother was seriously injured and was lying in the room in a helpless condition. According to her story, he placed them, clad only in their night clothes, in the tonneau of a large red automobile and drove furiously down the road in the direction of Oakland. She claims that she met them and that the oldest boy, aged 12 years, threw himself upon the driver, making it impossible for him to guide the machine, when he saw that the man's story was untrue, and that his mother was uninjured.

CHARGES KIDNAPING.

Mrs. Kovacs declares that the man wished to kidnap the children and attempted to secure a warrant for the arrest of Alec Allen, who was in a helpless condition. She claims that she was held to obtain a conviction and the less serious charge was placed against him. A "John Doe" warrant was issued for Alec Allen's arrest, and she claims that she was held to obtain a conviction and the less serious charge was placed against him.

The three men have entered a plea of not guilty, and refuse to discuss the case. Delaney and Richard Allen claim that he and Richard Allen were on the premises, but denies any knowledge of the taking away of the children in which Alec Allen is said to be implicated. The trouble, it is said, was the result of a dispute over the sale of the property by William Sherwood to Louis Kovacs, Delaney acting as agent for Sherwood in the transactions. The latter's claim that Kovacs had not made payments agreed upon in the contract sale, and the desire of the former to have the property returned to him for this reason, and the sale of the property declared null and void, is given as the reason that Delaney and Allen attempted to take possession of the place in the absence of the owners.

Picked Pocket of Her Old Style Dress

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—The present dress reform in articles of feminine apparel has eliminated almost entirely the useful pocket. In consequence the light fingered gentry who purloin the watches and coin of the street have been forced to resort to purse snatching if they would ply their nefarious trade among the wives and sisters. Yesterday, however, on a Haight-street car, they singled out Mrs. A. Engel, of 349 Haight street, who changed to have a pocket in her dress containing $50, which they deftly secured.

These diplomas were granted by the State Board of Education.

KIDNEYS WILL ACT FINE

Backache and All Distress
From Out-of-Order Kidneys
Vanish After a Few Doses.

Hundreds of folks here are needlessly miserable and worried because of out-of-order kidneys, backache or bladder trouble.

If you will take several doses of Pape's Diuretic all misery from a lame back, rheumatism, painful stitches, inflamed or swollen eyelids, nervous headache, irritability, dizziness, weakness, sick feeling and other symptoms of overworked or deranged kidneys will vanish. Uncontrollable smarting, frequent urination (especially at night) and all bladder misery ends.

Only a few preparation goes at once to the disordered kidneys, bladder and urinary system and distributes its healing, cleansing and vitalizing influence directly upon the organs and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it.

The moment you suspect any kidney or urinary disorders, or feel rheumatism coming, begin taking this harmless medicine, with the knowledge that there is no other remedy at any price, make any where else in the world which will effect so thorough and prompt a cure as a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic, which any druggist can supply.

Accept only Pape's Diuretic—fifty-cent treatment—from any drug store anywhere in the world.

BAD FOR ECZEMA.

Water Frequently Aggravates Skin Troubles.

In certain inland European districts where water is seldom used for bathing purposes the people are almost immune from skin affections. The best authorities now agree that soap and water are to be avoided in the treatment of skin diseases, particularly eczema, when present in the scalp or on the feet, as water is an irritant, and when not actually the cause of the disease, at least aggravates it. For this reason prescriptions put up in liquid or soap form, or containing traces of alcohol, have always failed.

The new skin remedy, poslam, is a flesh-colored ointment, containing no grease. Under its directions soap and water are forbidden. It may be used on the tender skin of infants with soothing and beneficial effect, and in eczema cases stops the itching immediately, rapidly restoring the skin to its normal condition.

Every druggist keeps both the 50-cent size (for minor troubles) and the $2 jar, and either can be obtained at The Ointment Co., as well as other reliable drug stores.

But no one is even asked to purchase poslam without obtaining a sample package, which will be sent by mail, free of charge, upon request, by the Emergency Laboratory, 20 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

HUGH GALLAGHER IS SUED BY SISTER PARTNER

Accounting Demanded of Share of Profits in Undertaking Business.

PROFITS REACH SUM
OF $15,000 YEARLY

Plaintiff Declares She Succeeded to Interests of
A. P. Smiley.

Miss Bessie Gallagher has instituted suit in the Superior court against her brother, Hugh C. Gallagher, to compel him to make an accounting to her of her share of the business which has been transacted by the Alameda undertaking firm of Smiley, A. Gallagher, from the year 1887 to the present time.

After setting forth in her complaint that she and her brothers are both residents of the Encinal City, Miss Gallagher alleges that in March, 1897, she and Gallagher entered into an agreement to more up to the undertaking business jointly and that to this end they entered into a partnership agreement with A. P. Smiley, it being understood between all the parties that the profits and losses incident thereto should be equally shared and borne by all three of the parties.

BOUGHT OUT SMILEY.

Miss Gallagher further states that in December, 1900, she and her brother mutually purchased the right, title and interest of Smiley in the business and that while the concern paid expenses and no more up to about the year 1902, from that date to the present time the business has been thrifty and prosperous, averaging, the complaint says, about $15,000 gross per annum, with the profits from year to year 50 per cent of this amount per year.

Plaintiff alleges that she has continuously and faithfully assisted in the conduct of the business since its establishment, thereby contributing equitably with her brother to its growth and increase.

TRUSTED BROTHER.

Owing, however, to the confidential relationship existing between them as brother and sister, Miss Gallagher asserts that she has always permitted her brother, without question of interruption, to collect and handle all the moneys belonging to the business, without rendering an accounting, until March, 1901, when she claims to have made her first demand upon him for a statement of the business and a division of the profits accruing therefrom, which he flatly refused to consider.

Miss Gallagher prays the court to order Gallagher to pay her a just and equal portion of the profits for the years covered, and for such other relief as may be just, together with costs of court.

MAUD L. BERRI IS TO SEEK DIVORCE

Denies Rumor But Not in a Way to Convince Her Friends.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Rumor has it that Maud Lillian Berri, prima donna of the Princess company, wife of Frank Moulton, the comedian, and daughter of Fulton G. Berri of Fresno, is about to seek a divorce, and though the singer refuses to verify the report she also refuses to deny it with any great amount of emphasis, and her friends are interestedly awaiting the outcome.

"I suppose the story started because Mr. Moulton and I are not playing together," declared the actress today. "I hear from him frequently, however, and we are so far apart that there has been no talk of a separation, at least not yet."

Miss Berri admits, however, that she might have told friends that she was going to assume a life of gay widowhood, but, well, she was only in fun, she declares, "and really she didn't think anyone would accept it seriously."

Miss Berri is leaving for Los Angeles soon and unless she decides to institute suit before leaving here she will have to reside for three months in the southern city before beginning action.

Important legal business having required the absence of Attorney A. L. Frick from the city, the trial of Fred W. Jurgert in the Superior Court for his alleged kidnapping of a child, was interrupted today. It will be resumed before Judge Murphy of Mono county tomorrow, however, and the indications are that the case will be given to the jury before night. The arrest of Jurgert on the ground that he shot Smith in self-defense is confidently expected by Attorney Frick.

ELMHURST FAVORS AUDITORIUM PLAN to Further Project.

ELMHURST, March 30.—The auditorium project of the Progress and Prosperity committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce was last night endorsed by the Elmhurst Board of Trade, which met at Red Men's hall in this district for the consideration of this and several other problems.

The organization also decided to affiliate with the Progress and Prosperity Committee in their efforts to further a bond call for the building. A report of Councilman R. C. Vose telling of the $14,000 appropriation for a fire house in the Elmhurst district was submitted to the board, and it was urged that at the next meeting of the city council, when the matter will be further considered, a delegation of the board attend the meeting to urge the immediate construction of the building.

Secretary J. E. Hood reported that the Oakland Traction Company had complied with the request of the organization in regard to placing the sign "Elmhurst" on all cars passing through here, and that the Suburban Light and Power Company had promised to grant Elmhurst a $1 gas rate by July 1st. Hood was instructed to write to Superintendent of the Elmhurst High school, where the board is considering purchasing extra land for an athletic field.

These matters were to have come before the board last night, but, on account of the length of time consumed by the open air school discussion, the matter was laid over to the next meeting.

HELPFUL HINTS ON HAIR HEALTH

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also causes headach. Never use a comb or brush belonging to some one else. No matter how cleanly the owner may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a headband is a resting place for microbes.

If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that it will cost you nothing for the trial if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called "Rever's Hair Tonic." We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles, and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases.

"Rever's Hair Tonic" is derived from benish Kadu, restores natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and makes the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does not destroy the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation of blood, which nourishes the hair roots, causing them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp to know that Rever's Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative in existence, and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the understanding that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particular. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rever's Hair Tonic in Oakland only at our store—The Retail Store, The Ointment Co., Inc., Tenth and Washington, Tenth and Broadway and Alameda and San Pablo avenues.

It would be justifiable that such persons exposing the health of little ones in their charge by this method of dress be arrested for cruelty to children. Seeds of the dreaded white plague that we are so dexterously trying to fight with money and brains can be sowed in childhood in this manner. Mothers and guardians of the tender young, take it unto yourselves; barring looks, how comfortable would you be with the English box and dresses to the knees during our present winter weather? Nurses and doctors, won't you help to thwart this ally, shallow-brained, sniggering, health-destroying fashion?

ELMHURST, March 30.—The auditorium project of the Progress and Prosperity committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce was last night endorsed by the Elmhurst Board of Trade, which met at Red Men's hall in this district for the consideration of this and several other problems.

The organization also decided to affiliate with the Progress and Prosperity Committee in their efforts to further a bond call for the building. A report of Councilman R. C. Vose telling of the $14,000 appropriation for a fire house in the Elmhurst district was submitted to the board, and it was urged that at the next meeting of the city council, when the matter will be further considered, a delegation of the board attend the meeting to urge the immediate construction of the building.

Secretary J. E. Hood reported that the Oakland Traction Company had complied with the request of the organization in regard to placing the sign "Elmhurst" on all cars passing through here, and that the Suburban Light and Power

The Leech on the Fish Industry.

At great expense the State stocks the waters of California with fish. Stringent laws are enacted to protect the young fry and the adult fish in the spawning season, also to prevent the fouling of the waters with oil and other chemical refuse destructive of fish life. An expensive commission clothed with ample powers is maintained by the State to protect fish and fishing grounds.

But it develops that young fish are daily slaughtered by thousands on the shores of San Francisco bay by Chinese shrimp fishermen, and the masses of oil refuse floating on the surface of all our inland waters testify to the non-enforcement of the laws forbidding defilement. The oil and chemical refuse destroy the fishing grounds, while the destruction of the young fish directly wastes the money the State expends for the propagation of fish life.

This, however, is only a part of the trouble with our food fish supply. An insatiable and ruthless combine has taken possession of the fish market, and is practicing extortion with the very instrumentalities the State has provided to make fish cheap and abundant. The fishing industry of California has been monopolized by an association of foreigners who are leagued against all persons not of their nationality. This association is in turn controlled by the combine of market men, who refuse to buy fish from persons of another race and who refuse to sell to retailers unless the latter agree not to purchase elsewhere. By methods peculiarly their own the Italian fishermen have made it impossible for white men of any other race to make a living catching fish planted at public expense in waters protected by the State. Yet the retail prices charged for fish are extravagantly high, far higher than conditions warrant. Fresh fish of excellent varieties are sent to the glue and fertilizer factories merely to create artificial scarcity, while prices are ingeniously forced up by a rapacious alliance between the foreign fishermen and a group of foreign middlemen.

Why is the State paying out large sums annually to keep the streams and bays stocked with fish if the catching and marketing of fish is to be continuously monopolized by a combine of foreigners who cinch the public and abuse the privileges the State gives them who employ the boycott and even still more criminal methods to suppress competition? Why should the people be taxed to maintain a commission which neither protects the young fish nor the waters from defilement? On one hand the people are plundered and on the other they are taxed to preserve and cheapen the fish food supply. But fish are neither protected nor cheapened, and the fishing industry fostered and developed by the State is monopolized by foreigners. Only Italians, Chinese and Japanese can survive in the fishing industry under existing conditions. If the Chinese and Japanese did not market their catch through tradesmen of their own race they could not survive. An American cannot sell his fish, no matter how high the retail price may be. Terror of the wholesalers' combine prevents retailers from buying from an outsider, and the members of the trust will not buy from him at all. Then his nets are surreptitiously cut up and his boats mysteriously scuttled. Sometimes strange accidents happen to him personally. Stories are rife along the Sacramento river of fishermen outwaded by the combine meeting tragic death.

But what are we going to do about it? Is the whole State going to permit this atrocious exploitation of the fishing industry to go on unchecked?

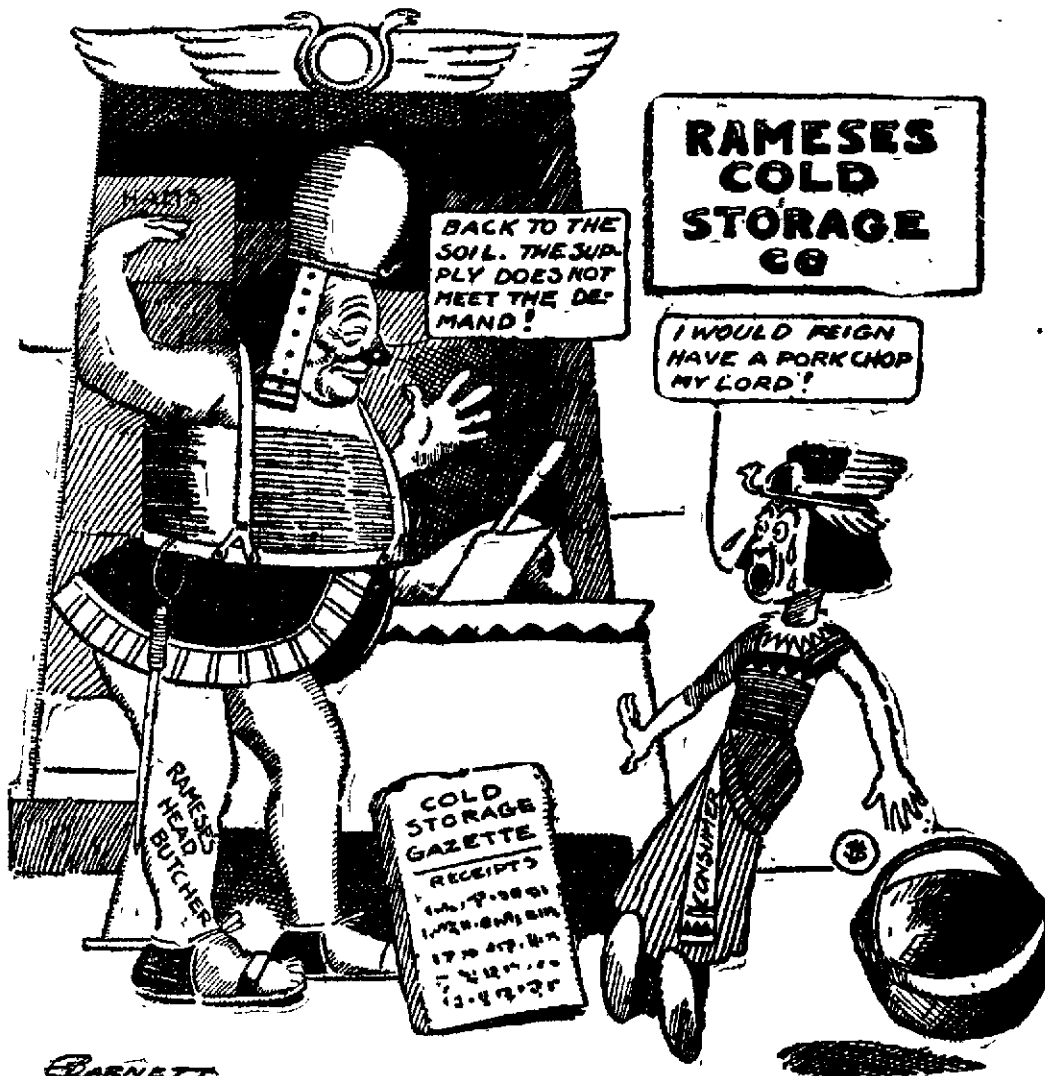

Mr. Roosevelt's Cairo Speech.

Mr. Roosevelt spoke words of truth and soberness to the students of the University of Cairo, but he nevertheless invaded the domestic politics of Egypt and gave great offense to the native element that is demanding a constitutional form of government and freedom from British domination. The national sentiment he provoked has been stirred to angry demonstrations in disapproval of the ex-President's remarks. Clearly the Egyptian agitators have to a certain extent misconstrued what Mr. Roosevelt had to say, taking his utterances to be in the nature of a defense of British rule and a condemnation of the effort to establish a system of self-government based upon popular suffrage. Of course the Egyptian masses are not fitted for the task of self-government, which is still optional in the most advanced nations, but, unfortunately, the question of self-government in Egypt is bound up with the spirit of nationality into which race and religious feeling largely enters. It is this spirit that Mr. Roosevelt has offended. To the native Arab mind he appears championing, as a visiting foreigner alien in race and religion, the cause of a foreign oppressor. His forthright rebuke of assassination as a remedy for political grievances is construed as a condemnation of the spirit of nationality which inspired the murder of the Khedive's prime minister, who was in reality an agent of the British power which rules Egypt through the Khedive and his ministers. The ignorant native mind is unequal to the task of discriminating between broad general principles and the special instance which environs them and absorbs their attention. Mr. Roosevelt is a foreigner and a Christian, and was received in Egypt with distinguished honors by the British officials and the Khedive, who is a mere puppet of British authority, the symbols of his sovereignty being employed as seals to the commands of a foreign government. Hence, what Mr. Roosevelt had to say about the qualifications for citizenship was taken as a slap direct to the sentiment of nationality which is aggressively manifesting itself on the banks of the Nile. While he spoke sense and truth, his utterances were ill-timed and calculated to provoke resentment. The English are greatly pleased, no doubt, but our former President might, with judicious propriety, have refrained from interfering in the dispute between the British and the people of Egypt. The incident is certain to provoke widespread comment and not a little adverse criticism in other countries. In France particularly he is likely to be criticized in a hostile and unfair spirit.

Pittsburg is going after her grafters in the right way and the right spirit. Neither high nor low is to escape apparently. It is not a personally conducted, privately financed crusade to achieve special ends. Neither is it a hippodrome for the glory of noisy demagogues and fake reformers.

The Prince of Monte Carlo has given his subjects a constitution. He would do something a deal better by depriving his toy kingdom of the dishonorable distinction of being the gambling hell of Europe. But to do that would deprive him of his revenue and compel his subjects to pay taxes for the maintenance of their government. The Monacans were anxious to get a constitution more because they desire a larger share of the proceeds of gambling tables. They asserted a claim to the right of self-government from motives entirely sordid. They have no intention of wiping out the disgrace under which their country labors.

PEOPLE in the EYES of EUROPE

Sixty seconds That is the time it takes Mr. H. B. Irving to transform himself from Dr. Jekyll to Mr. Hyde in his wonderful impersonation of the dual role at the Queen's Theater. And what a transformation it is! One moment Mr. Irving is seen in immaculate evening dress—calm, dignified and impressive as a learned doctor; and the next moment he is prowling round the stage—a hideous, quip-like creature, the very picture of evil. How is it done?

"It is said you use some wonderful trick costumes, Mr. Irving," the writer remarked during the course of an interview. The famous actor smiled. "Nothing of the sort," he replied. "I certainly did have a number of trick costumes and wigs made, but they did not falsify me. No; I simply depend upon the deftness of my dresser and myself to effect the change."

M. Rostand, the French dramatist, is an excellent amateur actor. On one occasion, when "Cyrano" was being played at Marseilles, he amused himself by taking the title role. After the performance he was accosted by an impresario from London, who supposed him to be the ordinary leading juvenile of the company. "Sir," said the impresario, "I congratulate you on your success, and I will offer you an engagement in London at $50 a week." "But—but—I am M. Rostand himself," gasped the poet. "In that case, sir," said the impresario, "I will raise the offer to $100 a week." The offer was still declined.

Mr. G. N. Barnes, M.P., the new chairman of the Labor party in Parliament, only entered the House of Commons in 1906, but he is one of the ablest and most esteemed members. He is quite a "self-made" man. Born at Leche, near Dundee, where his father was employed in a jute mill, George Barnes made an early acquaintance with work. He became an engineer, came to London, and, after his work in the daytime, studied hard at night classes, winning several prizes and certificates. Step by step he rose till he became general secretary to the rich and powerful Amalgamated Society of Engineers, the blue ribbon of the trades union world.

It is a curious fact that Sir William Ramsay, professor of chemistry at the London University, who is appealing for funds on behalf of new laboratories, was warned against adopting chemistry as a profession. "There are too many blanks and too few prizes," he was told. But Sir William has proved himself quite capable of drawing some of the prizes. He it was who, together with Lord Rayleigh, discovered the new element "argon," the two scientists sharing a prize of $10,000 awarded by the Smithsonian Institute for the discovery.

Mr. Cathcart Watson, the last M.P. to be elected, who was returned for the Orkney and Shetland islands, is undoubtedly the only member of the House who ever beguiled the tedium of waiting for divisions by knitting stockings. Mr. Watson's constituents are great kittens of the woolen hose.

We ask for information: "Does this 'back from Elba' business have a deep and sinister meaning? It is true that on the top layer it fairly sparkles with compliment; but beneath, we fear, there lurks the grim suggestion that after 'back from Elba'—only a little while after—came Waterloo. This does not sound very large, but when the figures are worked out it is found to be a lot. In every barrel shipped there are 80,000 checkers of the ordinary size.

Olga Nethersole On Immoral Play

To say that a play is immoral, dishonest or wanting in virtue because the social condition of certain of the characters therein presented does not happen to be all that could be wished, is calculated to defeat the very purpose of that which is best in drama.

Public opinion among English-speaking people would permit no such thing as the performance of an immoral play nowadays, and the sooner people realize what a chimera the expression is the better it will be for the dignity and welfare of the theater.

I am satisfied that "Baphomet" as moving and vivid a moral sermon as anything ever offered from the elevation of a Christian pulpit. The truth can never harm, and truth on the stage can only exercise its influence for good. When all is said and done, morality, or the lack of it, is regulated by a geographical location.—St. Louis Times.

The regular band of municipal rat catchers was overwhelmed by the magnitude of the task and the force has been doubled. The occupation of rat catching in Paris pays well. Those animals which are caught alive are sent to London and Brussels, whence numerous orders arrive from breeders of rat catching dogs. The figure says that the exportation of Parisian rats at present amounts to between fifteen hundred and two thousand a day. They are sold for about a dollar a dozen.

Three Million Matches a Minute

An expert in the match industry estimates last year's output of matches at 1,800,000,000—fifteen hundred billions. This provided something like 2,000,000 matches a minute for the use of the civilized world. Plenty of people now living remember when the sulphur match in its present form was unknown. And the old flint has not yet gone entirely out of use. In fact, it has had a recent revival of practical usefulness and is on sale now as a substitute for matches perhaps more extensively than at any time in the last half century. In need little leather cases, with a pocket for the very inflammable "kindling," are flint and steel are offered at most places where hunting outfits are for sale. They are so well made that a special skill is required in their use, and a fire is produced quite as quickly as with a match.

Among the Esquimaux the possession of a flint is the sure mark of wealth, or was until fur traders from the south began bringing matches into the Arctic Circle and made it possible for a man to attain the distinction of having a fire started by the simple exchange of a few furs for a box of safeties.

A bridge party and tea given at her home in Webster street this afternoon complimentary to Miss Seville Hayden who is to become the bride of Clarence Shuey the evening of April 14. Miss Helen Dornin announced her engagement to William R. Childs, son of Mrs. Mary F. Childs of this city. The secret was told by means of tiny cards found folded with each slice of the bride's cake which was a feature of the dining tea. The cake contained also a ring, thimble and a "good luck" piece.

The wedding, Miss Dornin told her guests, who were delightfully surprised, would take place in the fall.

The young bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dornin, is one of the most popular girls of the younger set and is a member of the Oakland Assembly and several other exclusive dancing clubs. She, as have all the other feminine members of the family, graduated from Snell Seminary in Berkeley and has traveled extensively, having but last fall returned from an extended trip abroad.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING

BOSTON.—By banding together the progressive college girls of America in an organization that will bar matrimony until the assigned work of each member in the cause of the suffragists is completed, the most radical movement yet devised by the leaders of the women's vote workers is soon to be put in force.

Each of the college suffragists in Wellesley, Bryn Mawr, Vassar, Smith, Radcliffe and other women's schools, will bind herself to forewear the marriage vow until she has won over to the woman's suffrage cause 500 bona fide men voters.

The plans of the advocates of this notable movement, the most unique in the history of American womanhood were explained by a member of the Equal Franchise Society, of which Mrs. Clarence Mackay is president.

"This will be a winner for the cause," she declared. "Instead of being a barrier to their marriage opportunities, we believe the true chivalry of American manhood will come forward and the members of our new college societies will be the most sought-for girls in the world."

Princesses' Fads

Princess Patricia of Connaught and her elder sister, the Crown Princess of Sweden, used as young girls to be fond of collecting precious stones from all parts of the world, and many of their friends contributed to their collection, notably the Princess of Wales, on her return from her long colonial tour. Thus the two royal sisters got together many gems both rich and rare, and these no doubt are a pleasure to them both nowadays.

They are evidently so to Princess Patricia, for one day when she was staying at a country house she asked her hostess whether she would like to see all her jewels and, as no guests were expected to join the party at dinner, she offered to wear them that evening. Princess Patricia thought it would be "such fun" and her hostess, being pleased at the idea, she by and by came down to dinner dressed in a simple-looking white frock, but fairly ablaze with diamonds and other jewels.

Learned of Hubby's Desertion Through the Dressmaker's Call for Money

NEW YORK.—Adolph De Jong, an art dealer with stores in several parts of the city, has sued Mrs. Sarah De Jong for a separation on the ground that she has a sharp tongue and an ungovernable temper. Justice Newburger of the Supreme Court yesterday granted temporary alimony of $25 a week and $100 counsel fee to enable her to defend the action and to press her counter suit for a separation. She asserts he abandoned her to lavish his affections on Mrs. Tenie O'Donnell of Brooklyn.

De Jong alleges that his wife treated him in a cruel and inhuman manner for five years, repeatedly accused him of being too friendly with other women with whom he has only a passing acquaintance, and accused him at almost every opportunity. She also neglected the children, he says.

NOT A HOME LOVER.

"During the last five years my husband and I lived together," Mrs. De Jong retorts in an affidavit. "my husband did not spend more than five evenings with me and the children."

Then she tells how she discovered her husband's alleged intimacy with Mrs. O'Donnell. A bill was sent to Mrs. De Jong for costly wearing apparel from a Manhattan department store. She took the bill to the store and protested that she had never bought the clothing. Thereupon, she says, she learned Mrs. O'Donnell received the goods. She learned that woman's address and called on her.

They exchanged confidences, the wife avers, and Mrs. O'Donnell promised to snub De Jong the next time she met him. But, Mrs. De Jong adds, the promise was not kept; in fact, she is sure De Jong is boozing with Mrs. O'Donnell at No. 5 Tompkins place, Brooklyn.

De Jong has art stores in many places in Manhattan. The principal ones are at No. 211 West One Hundred and Sixteenth street and at No. 529 Columbus avenue. His wife says he has a net income from the stores of $250 a week. De Jong asserts his income is no more than $75 a week. He denied vehemently the charges of infidelity. He says he has only an ordinary acquaintance with Mrs. O'Donnell.

Worry KILLS Happiness

The woman who worries is never self-controlled, never balanced, never at her best. Mental anxiety takes away vitality and leaves languor. It deprives its victim of her strength to fill her place in life.

Train yourself into consciousness of your own force of character, and when you thus touch the wire of infinite power you will surprise yourself at what you can accomplish. There is enough of this vital energy wasted in useless, harmful worry to run all the affairs of the world, says Dr. Madison C. Peck in the Washington Post.

The greatest friend, as well as your worst enemy, resides within yourself. If you look on the dark side, walk in the gloom, mope in the shade, anticipate trouble, and grow miserable as others around you are happy, you will attract evils as surely as honey attracts flies.

WEDDING DATE SET.
The date for the wedding of Miss Rosetta Rich to Samuel C. Haight has been set for Saturday, May 11. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's father, W. N. Rich, in Wheatland, and only the immediate relatives of the couple will be present. Mr. Haight and his bride will make their home in Berkeley.

FOR MISS GRAY.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Youngberg will entertain next Tuesday evening at an informal bridge party complimentary to Miss Mabel Thayer Gray, who has recently returned from a trip abroad.

TO WED NEXT MONTH.
The wedding of Miss Ethel Jones, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Fowler Jones of Derby street, Berkeley, and Edwin J. Lea, formerly of Honolulu, now of the college town, will be solemnized the latter part of April at the home of the bride's parents, with Rev. E. L. Parsons of St. Mark's Episcopal Church officiating.

Miss Jones' engagement was announced last fall and since that time has been the recipient of many complimentary gifts, being a talented violinist, pianist and singer.

The young couple will reside in Berkeley.

WINTER-DE WILD WEDDING.
The wedding of Miss Ethel Mary de Wald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. de Wald, and William Clement Winter, was solemnized at noon today in St. John's Episcopal Church, with Rev. Edgar F. Gee officiating.

The ceremony was extremely unostentatious and witnessed by relatives only. The bride, a beautiful blonde, was attired in a modish tailored suit of gray with a picture hat laden with plumes. She carried a shower of lilies-of-the-valley. After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Winter will reside in this city.

Worry KILLS Happiness

The woman who worries is never self-controlled, never balanced, never at her best. Mental anxiety takes away vitality and leaves languor. It deprives its victim of her strength to fill her place in life.

Train yourself into consciousness of your own force of character, and when you thus touch the wire of infinite power you will surprise yourself at what you can accomplish. There is enough of this vital energy wasted in useless, harmful worry to run all the affairs of the world, says Dr. Madison C. Peck in the Washington Post.

The greatest friend, as well as your worst enemy, resides within yourself. If you look on the dark side, walk in the gloom, mope in the shade, anticipate trouble, and grow miserable as others around you are happy, you will attract evils as surely as honey attracts flies.

Loathsome creatures—toads, lizards, beetles, and vipers—love the dark and avoid the sunlight; let in the health-giving, disease-destroying, bright, and

IN THE FAVORED HUE

But lately robed in ermine soft—
Meat foil for beauty rare—
I vowed that never any maid
With this maid could compare.

Elusive she, coquettish, vain,
Her eye alight with glee;
"Oh, snow-clad damsel!" murmured I,
"You're just the girl for me."

Then suddenly her mood had changed,
This fair and fickle one;
She posed demure, sedate, and staid,
In garb of sober dun.

Yet when I caught her roguish eye
A smile replaced her frown;
I love my girl in white—but oh,
You witching girl in brown!

Today her mood again has changed,
So mutable this maid;
Now spring is here and winter's gone,
Her gown's of livelier shade.

All trimmed it is with shamrocks new,
Soft emerald its sheen,
For gay Miss Earth, quite a la mode,
Is wearing of the green.

OFFENDING WIFE ONLY SMILED

Young Mrs. J. Raynor Wells Only Worried Husband's Mother About Train

NEW YORK.—Mrs. William Storrs Wells and her son, J. Raynor Wells, sailed from Cherbourg on the steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie.

Widespread rumor in the American colony in Paris has it that young Mr. Wells will sue for a divorce as soon as he arrives in America. Several years ago he married Miss Irene Bishop, a handsome, shapely brunette, who was on the stage in New York.

Rumor, too, describes a stormy scene in the St. Lazare railway station just before the steamer train left for Cherbourg. J. Raynor Wells rushed excitedly to the steamship line's agent and, pointing to a pretty woman who was pacing the platform, exclaimed:

"If that woman leaves on this train, we want to get our baggage off it immediately."

Then, report has it, Mrs. Wells came

Evelyn Jones, the fiancée of another son, wears C. Little.

Mrs. Little was assisted in receiving the large number of guests by:

Mrs. Joseph Moss
Mrs. A. J. Jones
Miss Evelyn Jones
Miss Frances
Mrs. William H. Jones
Miss Louise Hill
Miss Carolyn Little

forward to lend weight to her son's words and said, impressively, to the agent:

"If that woman intends to sail on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, you can cancel our passage. We will not sail on the same boat with her."

The puzzled agent tried to calm Mr. Wells and his mother. They explained to him, it is said, that the woman to whom they objected as a fellow-passenger is Mr. Wells' wife, whom he intends to divorce, and that it was simply impossible for husband and wife to sail on the same boat.

"Why do you not wait and see what she does?" asked the agent, diplomatically. "Perhaps she will not get on the boat. If she does, you can come back from Cherbourg, if you please."

Mr. Wells and his mother followed this advice and got on the train.

The handsome young woman did not take the train, but, smiling merrily, watched it depart. Then, nodding her head as if satisfied, she left the station.

Mr. Wells and his mother sailed. Raynor Wells has been in China for some time; he met his mother in Paris.

Whether to let the dead past bury its dead or to take up and expose its skeleton to the horrified gaze of the one who loves him is a question many a newly engaged man or woman has pondered.

Whether to let the dead past bury its dead or to take up and expose its skeleton to the horrified gaze of the one who loves him is a question many a newly engaged man or woman has pondered.

Many a man who has things in his past he doesn't like to think about and which he has now put far from him sees little use in bringing them to light. There may be incidents in the past life of a woman which are entirely of the past, but which still bring a blush of shame to her face when she thinks of them, but which seem to her of little use in recounting now. Ought they to tell each other these things? Is there a moral question at issue? Says Barbara Boyd in the St. Louis Times.

A good deal depends upon the nature of these deeds in themselves. If they are the more harmless escapades and flirtations of youth, with no injury resulting to anybody from them and only useful experience gleaned, one can tell them or not. They may be told and forgiven or laughed over. Or if the other party is of a disposition to be severe upon such peccadilloes, to make much of them and perhaps make life unpleasant for a while because of them, it is just as wise to say nothing about them. It may seem a pity when a man has entirely reformed and these acts of his are wholly of the past, that they should be raised up. But evil-doing always has its consequences, and a man should at least be man enough to shoulder them and not want to shove part of them upon an innocent woman.

The same rule holds good for the woman. A woman, of course, is not likely to have misdeeds of the character of men's in life. But she may have something in the nature of a scandal in her past that might possibly cast a shadow over her married life. She ought just as frankly to let the man know and see if he is willing to help her fight it.

These are the sort of things it would seem one ought to reveal. The trifling love affairs, the scrapes at school and such escapades as figure one way or another in nearly everyone's life, one can tell or not, as each deems best. They usually are told for the fun there is in the telling. But it doesn't seem right to permit the person one marries to be ignorant of serious matters that may affect the happiness of the married life.

Talks on Teeth

Rex Dental Co.

Good Teeth Bring Success

You must cultivate good looks. The world has no time to waste on the man or woman who is not presentable or who can't put up a good appearance.

Ugly teeth or missing teeth are a terrible handicap, greater by far than irregular features or even a bad skin. Seems as if the ugly teeth killed the face—something repulsive about them.

Ugly teeth are altogether unnecessary since the discovery and practice of the Alveolar Method by this company.

The Alveolar Method restores missing teeth, straightens crooked teeth and tightens loose teeth.

Alveolar teeth are beautiful to look at and as satisfactory as nature's teeth to eat with.

Don't compare them with the so-called false teeth you have been used to seeing on every side.

They are no relation. Alveolar teeth are beautiful in shape, size, color and an exact match for the teeth that are left, and each one is set in its own socket, thus following nature's plan as closely as possible.

The Alveolar Method has done away with the painful and the so-called "bridge," both of which were unsanitary and a disfigurement to the one who had to wear them.

It has worked a revolution in the science of dentistry and made tens of thousands of people happy and better looking. It is a simple, painless piece of work, but once done should last for all time.

All that we require is two or more teeth in either jaw to work from. We will supply all the rest, and defy any one to tell whether the Alveolar teeth grew in the mouth or not.

If you are interested in this question, come to the nearest one of our offices and let us make a careful examination of your mouth.

When we have done so we will tell you what we can do for you, what it will cost, and you can then have the work done or not, just as you think best.

There is no obligation to spend a cent, because we examine your teeth absolutely free.

We must make an examination before we can promise to restore your teeth, for no two cases are just alike; but we rarely find a case where we can't restore all the missing teeth.

Why not put your time against ours? Why not have perfect teeth, so you can "keep smiling" without embarrassment?

If you can't call at one of our offices right away, send for our book, "Alveolar Dentistry," and read it. Best book on the teeth ever prepared. A request will bring it.

CHALLENGE ISSUED BY ELEANOR SEARS

She Wants to Prove American Women Are Good Long-Distance Walkers.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Miss Eleanor Sears, the dashing and charming exponent of "The American Girl in the Open Air," who has attracted considerable attention by introducing a masculine cut of riding and walking dress into the Burlington smart set, has made a most unique defense of the athletic abilities of the American girl by challenging any woman to a race over the McInerney-Selby Marathon walking course from Burlingame to Del Monte.

The question of how well English girls walk and how little attention their American cousins pay to this healthful form of exercise was brought up at Coronado last week. Miss Sears took the matter up at once, and announced that she would prove that American girls are good walkers per se.

WILL WALK FOR FUN.
Not only did she state that she would walk any woman of any nationality over the 105-mile distance from Burlingame to Del Monte, but she offered to walk it just for fun and guarantee to do it in sixty hours, provided she could find some women to accompany her in relays.

Miss Sears has talked the matter over with Dr. McInerney, and announced yesterday that she proposed to go in training for the event and expected to start the race within the next few weeks. This has caused a flutter in the polo set, and it is rumored that there are several fair athletes who seriously consider accepting the challenge of the dashing Diana.

VETERAN JURIST LAYS DOWN ERMINE

Judge W. B. Nutter of San Joaquin Retires to Law Practice

STOCKTON, March 30.—The local bar was greatly surprised today when Judge W. B. Nutter announced he had decided to tender his resignation as Judge of the Superior court of San Joaquin county to Governor Gillett, the same to take effect May 1 next. Previous to being elected county judge, he was a member of the law firm of Nicol, Orr & Nutter. The recent death of Nicol caused Judge Nutter to decide on returning to his private practice.

Judge Nutter is serving his second term, having been elected on a non-partisan ticket, and has two years yet to serve. He will clear up his calendar at once, so his successor, who will probably be a Republican, can start with a clear calendar. Judge Nutter has handled almost all of the criminal business since he was elected six years ago. Among the famous cases before him was that of Mrs. Emma Ledoux, the bank robberess. Several applicants will petition the Governor to be appointed to the vacancy.

Operatic "Laila" For Women's Clubs

SAN RAFAEL, March 30.—All Marin is awaiting with interest for April 2d, when twenty children will present a fair operatic entitled "Laila" and a vaudeville performance at Tamalpais Center, Kentfield, for the benefit of the Woman's Club of Corte Madera and Tamalpais Center.

Over thirty children will take part and specialties will be given by those who will take part between the acts. They are as follows: "Story," Ruth Toomes; "Message of the Violet," Ruth Wheeler; "The Handorgan Man," George Perry; "Halleluiah," Arthur Rude, Gordon Voorhees, Gus Tompkins; "The Swing Song," Faith Voorhees, Bernita Little, Mary Hill, Catherine Rude, Hazel Hanna, Florence Vickerson, Bettie Balger, Irene Templeton, Gordon Voorhees, Arthur Rude, Halleluiah, George Perry.

The entertainment will be followed by dancing.

Installation of Police Flash Lights

MELROSE, March 30.—The work of installing two large signal lights with which the police officers of the annexed district can be called into the station was completed yesterday. One of the lights is situated in front of the station in Melrose, the other having been installed in Elmhurst, near the Oakland Traction company's barns.

The signals are composed of seven red electric globes of sixteen candle power each. It is possible to see the flash of the lights for miles along the straight roadway. Other lights will be added as the growth of the district creates the demand.

A JOLLY DUTCH COMEDIAN

Pete Baker, Monogolist, at The Bell This Week.

Peter F. Baker, an old-timer at the vaudeville game, is back on the stage again after an absence of a dozen or more years. That he has lost none of his powers to amuse or entertain is evident at the splendid reception he is receiving this week at this popular theater. Very Dutch in typical Dutch outlook, looking very Dutch in his immigrant suit, off the stage and he launches out with a broadside in German that at once catches those familiar with that tongue. Quickly changing to German dialect he regales his hearers with a continuous fire of humorous Dutch yams. He makes a rapid change in attire, appearing again in faultless evening dress, when the best of his number is offered. It is a series of stories told in twelve dialects that is certainly a gem. There are a number of excellent features on the bill this week, but none calculated to give more genuine pleasure than the act of this old-timer, Peter F. Baker.

Tomorrow is gift-giving day for all ladies at the matinee. There is a genuine surprise in store for the lady patrons tomorrow and many of them will no doubt be on hand.

Dr. Burke Pleads Not Guilty to Charge

SANTA ROSA, March 30.—"Not guilty" Dr. Willard F. Burke said in loud and determined voice when Judge Seawell yesterday told him to enter his plea to the indictment of the Sonoma county Grand Jury charging him with dynamiting the tent house at Burke's sanitarium occupied by Lon Etta Smith and her baby.

The entry of plea came after Judge Seawell had overruled the demurrer interposed by Hiram Johnson and Rollo Leppo, Dr. Burke's attorneys, alleging uncertainty of the indictment. Judge Seawell concluded that the indictment sufficiently described the tent house.

Dr. Burke is just recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia, planning and looking wan and haggard today.

Judge Seawell was occupied all day listening to arguments made on the demurrer to set aside the indictment charging malpractice, and reserved his decision.

Steamer Rupert City Sold to Eastern Man

SEATTLE, Wash., March 30.—Negotiations were concluded last night for the sale by the MacKenzie Bros. Company of Vancouver, B. C., of the steamship Rupert City to a company to be organized by Eastern capitalists under the name of the Washington Steamship Company.

Last summer the Rupert City was used on the run between Seattle and Prince Rupert, B. C., but for several months she has been idle at Vancouver.

The local representative of the purchasers said last night that no decision has been reached concerning the run upon which the vessel will be utilized.

The Ethelston Society, an organization of negro capitalists of Los Angeles, Calif., recently made an offer for the Rupert City, desiring to use the steamer in establishing a line to ply between Los Angeles and Liberty, but this deal fell through.

ASPHALT DEMAND CREATES ACTIVITY

Paving Needs Brings Forth Market for the By Product

BAKERSFIELD, March 30.—The tremendous demand for asphalt for paving and other purposes has given impetus to this particular branch of the oil industry. The market that is now so far short of the supply can be readily accommodated by proper organization and the utilization of the large and now useless deposits of oil so heavy as to constitute practically nothing but a liquid asphalt, found in so many parts of the State on the edges of the fields. At Newport Beach there is a quantity of this, which some slight and unsuccessful attempts have been made to work. One company tried to extract the liquid asphalt that is found on the heights back of Newport Bay at slight depth, and the Newport Bay Oil Company has pumped a little of the very heavy oil from comparatively shallow depths, but no commercial results have been obtained.

At Casamalia, on the Southern Pacific coast line, on what some have regarded as the edge of the vast district in which the Santa Maria field's walls lie, are old wells that found an oil or liquid asphalt of about 5 to 10 gravity. They were never used. Again, similar deposits exist on the extreme edges of Sunset and in quite a few spots.

NATURAL ASPHALT.

To pump this stuff is well nigh impossible at present, but there is no doubt but that in time mechanical genius will solve the problem. If it can be made to pay. Also, there are some fair deposits of natural asphalt on the coast, now idle because they do not pay, but which may be revived once the market is strengthened.

One disadvantage to California asphalt men is found in the fact that none, or practically none of them, have had experience in its use. Hence, how well one may understand the theory and the laboratory end, he ought to know something about the other part. The Union is remedying this by employing an expert, Carl F. Adams, who has handled all this asphalt in Mexico. The Mexican asphalt men are making the contractor's needs. Such an expert will be very necessary to any asphalt men in California.

The Barber Oil Company of Los Angeles are making asphalt for their use in street building and thus they get the exact value of the asphalt. The largest firms of paving contractors in Southern California, Fairchild, Wilton & Gilmore, Los Angeles, who have been making their own asphalt. If circumstances ever turned would be glad to go into the paving business itself and the ability, even if never used, might some day be a valuable asset.

Petroleum people have done means of another company, the Mexican Asphalt and Paving Company, which not only makes and sells asphalt but does all kinds of street work.

Goulds in Control Of Pacific Express

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Union Pacific Railroad has sold to the Gould interests $2,400,000 of the stock of the Pacific Railroad has sold to the Gould interests $2,400,000 of the stock of the Pacific Express Company, which the railroad held in its treasury for years.

The Goulds now completely control the express company, as all the stock which was not held by the Union Pacific was owned by the Missouri Pacific and the Western Union.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders yesterday Jay Gould and Kingsdon Gould were elected directors to take the places made vacant by the resignations of J. Kruttschnitt and Erasmus Young.

Routs Indigestion; Dies of Starvation

SEATTLE, Wash., March 30.—A post-mortem held on the body of Earl Edward Erdman, aged 24, who died after long abstention from food to cure indigestion, showed that he had died of starvation. Erdman, a railroad civil engineer, had been treated three weeks for indigestion by a woman physician, whose treatment involved eating no food which was made for transfusion of blood from the dying man's friend. Erdman died before patients of the woman doctor have died of starvation, but the coroner says there was no law under which she can be prosecuted.

Cheap Meat Doomed Says Texas Attorney

WASHINGTON, March 30.—"Unless some one can find a way to repeal the law of supply and demand there is no remedy for increasing prices," asserted Samuel H. Cowan, of Fort Worth, counsel for the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas, before the Senate investigating committee today. "The people of the United States never need expect cheap meat."

Mr. Cowan told the committee that in the near future it would be necessary for cattle raisers to maintain even higher prices than at present in order to keep pace with the increased cost of grazing land and feed. Cowan thought the present price of beef was due to the decreasing production and the increasing population.

White Men in Danger In Liberian Battle

LIVERPOOL, March 30.—Advices received state that the fighting between the natives and Liberian troops at Cape Palmas, Liberia, continues and grows more serious. Rev. Mr. Spear, a native pastor at the mission in Cape Palmas, has been shot and killed and the lives of the white residents are said to be in danger.

The hostile natives appear to be getting the better of the troops, whose excesses, when they were sent to stop the native trade in French territory, caused the natives to maintain a steady and determined resistance to the British intervention by Great Britain.

Rinderspacher Estate Appraised at $11,344

The value of the estate left by the late Laurence F. Rinderspacher, a retired capitalist of San Leandro, according to an inventory and appraisal just filed in the probate department of the superior court, is $11,344.55. The personal property consists of money in the sum of $28,444.45, deposited as follows:

In the Fibernia Savings and Loan Society, $6419.06; in the German Savings and Loan Society, $2945.55; in the Union Savings Bank of Oakland, $11,677.25; in the Farmers and Merchants Savings Bank of Oakland, $3502.01; and in the Oakland Bank of Savings, $800.00.

Pipe Laying Machine Will Be Made Here

Articles of incorporation of the Humphreys Pipe-Laying and Manufacturing Company of Oakland, with a capital stock of $100,000, divided into as many shares of the par value of $1 each, 500 of which have been subscribed by the incorporators, have been filed with the county clerk, by C. A. Humphreys, J. E. John, J. N. Bonham and Jay W. Egan, of this city. The company will manufacture and place upon the market a recently patented pipe-laying machine, the invention of Humphreys.

Strike Averted When Miners Accept Terms

LONDON, March 30.—The Miners' Federation of Great Britain voted to accept a terms of settlement proposed by the South Wales coal miners and the threatened strike has been averted.

Seat Sale Is Ready For Renowned Dancer

The sale of seats for the great dancing and musical "fest" by Maud Allan and her grand symphony orchestra of nearly half a hundred players, opens tomorrow morning at 9 a. m. at Ye Liberty Playhouse where the performance is scheduled for next Wednesday night, April 6.

Maud Allan is the one big sensational hit of the present season in New York and comes direct from that city with but one stop enroute. She receives the biggest fee ever paid any single artist in this country with the exception of a few of the most famous singers.

Sells Baker's Shop To Pay His Debts

MILL VALLEY, March 30.—Acting under a writ of execution issued out of the local Recorder's Court, Marshal Melvin S. Baker last week sold at public auction all the four and baker's effects of Giovanni Riva, an Italian baker who conducted a shop here on the Blythe road. Riva disappeared from his shop about the first of January, leaving behind many unpaid bills. The attachment has been hanging over him from that time until a few days ago, when Riva was caught at Suisun and served with a notice.

DRAKE WILL ASK FOR SEPARATION

Desertion May Be Charged Against Wife by New York Furniture Man

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Announcement that Frank Drake, the New York furniture man, who declares he discovered his wife dining at the Tachau Tavern with George Graham, a traveling salesman, on his unexpected return from Los Angeles a few days ago, will institute proceedings for divorce as soon as his legal residence in this city shall have been established, according to announcement made today.

Desertion will be charged, it is stated, husband and wife having maintained separate apartments since the sensational chase down Market street which followed the interruption of the dinner. Mrs. Drake was at the time forced to sign articles of separation and the suit will be unopposed in all probability.

To further assure his decree the husband will name a number of prominent men in different parts of the country as co-respondents, declare the gossip, chief among them being T. J. Munley, a real estate agent of Portland; S. A. D. Pater, the famous land promoter, who recently served a jail term for alleged fraudulent operations; and Gilbert R. Jones of Evansville, Ill.

Mrs. Drake was on a friendly terms with both these men, according to the husband, who is at present staying at the Palace Hotel. The question of alimony for the wife, it is said, is not allowed her, has not yet been brought up.

ANOTHER SCALP AT CHIEF'S BELT

Richmond Poundmaster Loses Official Cranium at Police Head's Request.

RICHMOND, March 30.—The scalp-setting business continued last night and that of Poundmaster Perry was hung to the belt of Chief of Police Arnold. A recommendation was read, signed by the chief, asking that the office of poundmaster be declared vacant on and after the first of April. Mr. Arnold reported that Perry had given him more trouble than all the Richmond administration, meaning probably the police force. He stated that complaints had been filed with him so fast that he was unable to properly classify them, and that it took nearly all of his time rounding up the unruly poundmaster. Therefore, he asked that the office of the administration be abolished.

Other councilmen reported on the unofficial acts of the poundmaster. Chief Arnold related an instance where Perry threatened an old man with arrest, declaring that he would throw the old man in jail and keep him there for thirty days, feeding him on bread and water. It is stated that the old gentleman gave up two dollars to Perry in order to keep from going to jail.

Gas Company Plans For Better Service

RICHMOND, March 30.—For several years the council has wrestled with the gas problem. Last year, the price was cut with the intention of compelling the company either to do more business or give some other chance. Then came a representative and proposed that if the council could put on the old rate, they would endeavor to give the people better service. It was thought that a combination was to be effected whereby the Richmond Light and Power Company would get behind the proposition. This, however, seemed to dwindle away. Now it is understood that the company will pipe the west side of town and supply all residents with gas at the commodity. For two years the gas question has been discussed by the people and the council with no satisfactory results. It now looks as though the city is to be amply supplied with gas.

Indians Must Fight Railroad for Land

SPOKANE, March 30.—Half of the settlers on the Spokane and Flathead Indian reservations will be involved in a legal battle for possession of their claims. A huge contest clouding half of the sections in the Spokane and Flathead reservations has been filed with the Department of the Interior by the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Every odd section on these reservations, comprising nearly half of their entire acreage, is claimed by the railway company as its property under the government land grant made to the Northern Pacific in 1864. Nearly 80,000 acres of the Spokane reservation are affected. Formal notice of the contest was issued to the settlers and the United States Land Office at Spokane by the local counsel for the Northern Pacific.

SCRATCHED HEAD TILL IT WAS RAW

Eczema Broke Out on Baby's Head Causing All Her Hair to Fall Out—Could Not Sleep—Spread of Fearful Disease Averted and Easy, Economical Cure Effected, for

A FRIEND ADVISED USE OF CUTICURA

"When my little girl was four months old her head broke out with eczema. I tried everything but nothing did her any good. She could not sleep at night and she did nothing but scratch her head, which was like a raw piece of meat. All of her hair fell out. A friend of mine told me about Cuticura and the good it did for her little boy. After the first cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment I used I could see a change. I used just two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and my little girl's head is cured. Her hair is growing fine and long and her skin is like velvet. Friends say that my quick action in using the Cuticura Remedies kept the eczema from spreading all over her body."

"I still use the Cuticura Soap and always keep a box of Cuticura Ointment in the house. I use them for my hands, which were so badly chapped that the skin would crack and bleed. I would cry with pain. My hands are entirely cured now. You certainly have ray permission to publish this letter in any paper, for I know how wonderful Cuticura is. Mrs. F. Davis, 209 E. Indiana St., Chicago, Ill., Jan. 18, 1919."

Itching Devils

Are little patches of eczema on the skin, scalp or hands which are instantly relieved and speedily cured, in the majority of cases, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointing of Cuticura Ointment, purest and sweetest of emollients.

BURKE'S APPEAL TO AID CENSUS

All Organizations in District Requested to Help the Work.

The 206 aspirants for position in the taking of the census of this district are recommended for appointment by Supervisor J. M. Burke have been approved by the Washington authorities and the successful ones are being sworn in and qualified as rapidly as possible. They will enter upon the discharge of their duties on April 15.

In order to facilitate the enumeration and to make the census as effective as possible, Supervisor of Census J. M. Burke has addressed to all the clubs, improvement organizations, fraternal societies throughout the district the following letter:

Dear Sir: This letter is written to call your attention to the importance of the organization which you represent, to the United States census which will be taken on April 15th in all other places. Reading the report of your organization has displayed in advancing the interests of Alameda county in other matters. I believe you will be glad to help us obtain a full and accurate census. You will realize the general importance of the census to any community, but this census is of very special importance to Alameda county. Here are a few points why this is so:

CENSUS IS STANDARD.
The United States census is the accepted standard for showing the size and increase of any community. The census taken ten years ago showed the population of Oakland City at 60,000. Berkeley, Alameda County, had a population of over 50,000 inhabitants, and from April 15th to May 15th in all other places. Reading the report of your organization has displayed in advancing the interests of Alameda county in other matters. I believe you will be glad to help us obtain a full and accurate census. You will realize the general importance of the census to any community, but this census is of very special importance to Alameda county. Here are a few points why this is so:

THIRD DISTRICT.
Alameda is joined with two other counties to form the Third Congressional District of California. Its present population entitles it to stand alone as a Congressional District. It is a separate district entirely upon this census. It is surely worth while to make a special effort to include every person who belongs to Alameda county in the census when doing so will help to increase the representation of this county at Washington and to increase its share of Federal attention and appropriations.

FIXED INQUIRIES.
The information which the census enumerators must obtain is fixed by act of Congress. The questions which the enumerator will ask concerning each person call for: "The name, relationship to head of family, whether or not employed or employee, and, if employed, whether or not employed at the date of enumeration (April 15, 1910), and the date of birth." These questions are asked of every person who is a resident of the preceding calendar year (1918), whether or not engaged in agriculture, stock raising, or any other business, or in any way to affect the life, liberty or property of any person. It is purely and simply for statistical purposes.

UNDER SECRETARY.
1. It is not a meddling inquiry into private affairs. The questions named above must be asked in order that statistics be obtained for the general condition of the country. No part of the information concerning any individual is ever made public. Each enumerator is sworn to secrecy and will be most severely punished if he divulges to outsiders any part of the information he has officially obtained.

2. The census is not, never has been, and can not be employed to obtain information that can be used in any way in the assessment of property for purposes of taxation or the collection of taxes, judicial, State or local, transportation proceedings; extradition measures; army or navy conscription; compulsory school attendance; child labor law prosecutions; quarantine regulations; or in any way to affect the life, liberty or property of any person. It is purely and simply for statistical purposes.

AID CENSUS.
1. Every member can and should be ready and willing to answer all the questions of the enumerator concerning his family. He can and should take a personal interest in making sure that every person who lives in his home is enumerated.

2. Every member can and should spread the news of the census among his neighbors and friends. We need the assistance of everyone we can get to spread a true idea of the census among all the people.

3. If any member knows of any person whose regular place of abode is in Oakland, Alameda or Berkeley and who has not been enumerated by May 1st he should immediately notify the Supervisor of Census, Tribune Building, Oakland. Persons temporarily absent from their homes here between the dates must be enumerated as here. Members can help us to count their absent friends by mentioning the absentees to the enumerator.

Thanking you in advance and the officers and members of your organization for their co-operation in helping to count every man, woman and child who belongs in Alameda county for Alameda county, I am,

Very respectfully,
J. M. BURKE,
Supervisor of Census.

Hellman Acquires Von Schroeder Ranch

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Jasiah W. Hellman has purchased the 35,000-acre ranch of the Baron Von Schroeder in San Luis Obispo. The figure is said to be $350,000. The banker is buying for a private estate. He is also buying the ranch, which is also his other California holdings, and those of his wife, preparatory to going back to Germany to live permanently on the estate left him a year ago by his late father. He is to leave in June with Baroness Von Schroeder.

EVERYONE NEEDS S.S.S. IN THE SPRING

This is just a short talk which every will be of interest and help to you in selecting the tonic and blood purifier that will be of the greatest value to you this Spring.

That this is the most trying of all seasons on the health is a fact well known to us all. It is the time of year when our constitutions are required to stand the greatest strain, and unless properly cared for the foundation is often laid for physical disorders or disease later on. The great majority of persons are fast coming to realize the importance of preventing disease. Health is our most valued possession, and its preservation is a matter which vitally concerns every one.

Most persons, even those who are ordinarily strong and robust, feel the necessity of a tonic and blood purifier at this season. Some have no particular ailment, but are weak, debilitated and run-down. The Winter life, with its decreased amount of out-door exercise, and the fact that the cold weather has kept the pores of the skin closed, prevented the usual necessary amount of refuse and waste matter from being carried out of the system. These impurities entering the circulation have weakened and thinned the blood, and this vital fluid is therefore lacking in the nourishing properties necessary to sustain and preserve systemic health, when warm, active Spring life begins.

The general bodily weakness, tired, worn-out feeling, fickle appetite, poor digestion, etc., show how weak and anemic the blood has become. Frequently skin diseases, pimples, eruptions, boils, etc., break out on the skin, and this is evidence of the impurity of the circulation.

S. S. S. is the medicine needed to correct this condition, and is the only one on which you can rely to supply the system with the best tonic effects, and at the same time thoroughly purify the blood. The use of S. S. S. at this time may save you from a long spell of sickness, and it will certainly prepare you for the strain of the long, hot Summer.

Many people have put off using a tonic until the system became so weakened it could not resist disease, and have paid for the neglect with a spell of fever, malaria, or some other trouble. S. S. S. is Nature's ideal tonic and blood purifier, made entirely of the pure extracts of healing, strengthening, health-giving roots and herbs. It tones up the stomach and digestion, rids one of that tired, worn-out feeling, improves the appetite and digestion, and in every way contributes to the strengthening and building up of the entire system. S. S. S. is recognized everywhere as the greatest of all blood purifiers, and this combined with its unequalled tonic properties, make it a medicine needed by every one in the Spring. S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

Divorce Is Granted To Walter G. Sachs

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Walter G. Sachs, wealthy insurance broker, has obtained a divorce from Edna M. Sachs. For years Mrs. Sachs has been known in the smart set as one of San Francisco's best-dressed women.

A letter has been received from him by Harry W. Walker, secretary of the old aqueduct commission, in which he states that he will return to America by way of England. Mr. Walker has begun preparations among the Bryan men of this city for a suitable reception. Mrs. Bryan and her daughter, Grace, returned yesterday.

Friends to Welcome Bryan on Return

NEW YORK, March 30.—William J. Bryan will arrive in New York April 5, according to an announcement here today. He has been out of the country for several months, spending the greater part of the time in South America.

A letter has been received from him by Harry W. Walker, secretary of the old aqueduct commission, in which he states that he will return to America by way of England. Mr. Walker has begun preparations among the Bryan men of this city for a suitable reception. Mrs. Bryan and her daughter, Grace, returned yesterday.

Let Me Tell You Something

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is to blame for her own wretched condition.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. Read what these women say:

Camden, N. J.—"It is with pleasure that I send my testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, hoping it may induce other suffering women to avail themselves of the benefit of this valuable remedy."

"I suffered from pains in my back and side, sick headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman—and this valuable medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. Valentine, 902 Lincoln Ave., Camden, N. J.

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am writing to tell you that I am pleased with your medicines. I had been sick for a long time with prolapsus. I heard about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have found that it is the right kind of medicine for me. I felt relieved after taking one bottle and I kept on taking it till now I am well and strong, and am able to do my work."—Mrs. Henry Kosow, 472 Genesee St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

They Speak For Themselves

San Francisco, Nov. 21, 1909.
Dr. Wong Him, 1258 O'Farrell street, San Francisco. Dear Doctor—After suffering for a number of years from Bright's Disease and Stomach Trouble, I feel compelled to write you for an examination and treatment. Your diagnosis of my disease and the herb treatment you gave me, after taking you a few months of am entirely well and free from pain.

Faithfully yours,
HECTOR BRAULA.

1022 Kearny St., San Francisco, November 1909.

Dear Sir: For several months I suffered with terrible agonies of pain in my stomach, not being able to eat or retain any food. I felt no relief until I was recommended to you. After the first treatment I got relief, and now, after several months of treatment of your herb medicine, I feel cured of my trouble. During my treatment with you I have gained 30 pounds. I tender you my most sincere thanks, and remain gratefully yours,

MRS. E. THOMAS, Antioch, Cal.

Dear Sir: For several years, while suffering agonies of pain, I tried, in vain, to find relief from physicians of various schools of medicine, when, as a last resource, my life being in great danger, I applied to you. You cured me with your Chinese Herb Treatment and saved my life, for which cure I tender you my most sincere thanks, and remain, most gratefully yours,

WILL CONSTRUCT MUNICIPAL WHARF

City Engineer Chapman Prepares Draft to Submit to City Council.

ALAMEDA, March 30.—Plans for the proposed wharf on the city's property at the north end of Grand street have been prepared by City Engineer I. N. Chapman and will be submitted to the city council committee session Friday night.

The plans show a structure 300 feet in length by 60 feet in width. It is located at a point about 20 feet from the present termination of the land, which distance will have to be filled in.

Chapman says the cost of the wharf, if it is built on unconsolidated piling, will not be excessive.

The street department has been depositing waste material at the end of the property and about forty feet of it has been filled in this way.

It will take 225 cubic yards of material to be planked with four-inch boards.

The matter of building city wharves has been Councilman William Hammond Jr.'s pet project and he introduced the subject at a recent meeting of the City Council that the City Engineer was instructed to prepare plans and estimate the cost of building a municipal wharf.

The idea of the city is to demand a fee from all vessels docking at the new wharf. A good revenue is expected to be derived in this way.

Berkeley Society

BERKELEY, March 30.—One of the most beautiful Easter weddings will be celebrated this evening at St. Mark's Episcopal Church when Charles Gordon will claim Miss Amanda Trollope as his bride. The ceremony will be solemnized at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. Edward Parsons, pastor of the church.

Monday evening the bride-elect entertained the members of the bride party. The maid of honor is Miss Ethel McNeil and Miss Claire Cole and Miss Caroline Koford will attend as bridesmaids. Daniel Hammond will be the best man and the ushers are Dr. Albert Howe, Harold Pitchford and Mr. Kinell. Other guests last night were Miss Marie Whitman, Mrs. D. G. Gordon, the groom's mother, who has come from the southern part of the State for the wedding, and Robert Peters.

In place of the annual social occasion which each year brings to an end the work of Etude Club, the well-known musical organization, a concert will mark the close of this year. It will be given in Unity hall the evening of April 14. The program for the affair has not yet been arranged, but it gives promise for a very delightful musical evening. Several hundred cards will be issued for the evening.

The nominations for officers of the club were made yesterday. Mrs. Josephine Crow Allyn has again been named president; vice-president, Mrs. George S. Johnson; recording secretary, Mrs. Claire Fernin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ethel Hunt Safford; treasurer, Mrs. O. C. Yoss. The annual election will be held two weeks from yesterday.

A tug ride about the bay was a week-end pleasure of Delta Gamma. A score of girls, members of the local chapter, and many friends, enjoyed the ride. Mrs. Island was visited and uncheon spread there.

Miss Peyton McAllister left yesterday for a visit of several months in the East. Miss McAllister formerly made her home in this city and has many friends on this side of the bay. Before her departure for the East she was the guest for a few days of Miss Alice Gavett in Berkeley. Freuden Club claims Miss McAllister as one of its members.

One of the many pleasant house parties planned for Berkeley students during their out-of-town visits in the mid-term vacation was at the home of Mrs. Maxine Graham, at Carmel-by-the-Sea, for a group of her classmates from the high school. Those who attended included the picturesque scene of the Misses Marie Waterbury, Genevieve Townsend, Laura Blake, Roberta Gould and Katherine Robinson.

Berkeley Personals

BERKELEY, March 30.—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cox have returned from Santa Rosa. Charles Savage has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Barnett of Santa Rosa.

Freud McConnell was a week-end visitor from Santa Rosa.

G. A. Wilcox of Martinez attended the meeting of geologists here last week.

Prof. and Mrs. Ludwig Demeter were in Berkeley.

Dr. Martha Barnby has returned from Sacramento, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Scott and children and returned from Ceres, where they visited Mrs. C. M. Stetson, Mrs. Scott's mother.

Mrs. Laura Frable and Miss Fay Frable have returned from East Oakland to Berkeley.

Miss E. H. Payne, a Burnham missionary worker, is visiting in Berkeley.

Miss Lenora Waite of Watsonville is visiting relatives.

Miss Virginia McDermott of Parkfield is the guest of Mrs. D. A. Porter.

Miss Anita Baker has been visiting friends at San Jose.

N. C. Kimball has returned to New York City.

Prof. Charles Mills Gayley has returned from Los Angeles.

Alameda Personals

ALAMEDA, March 30.—Mrs. Adrian Merle entertained forty of her friends yesterday afternoon in honor of her departure for Europe April 16th. Mrs. Merle will be absent about six months. She will sail from Hoboken on the Kron Princess Cecilia April 26th for Bremen. Berlin will be the destination of the traveler.

Herman Krul is touring the East in a new sixty-horse-power six-cylinder open-seated automobile. Mr. and Mrs. Krul are planning to return to California in June.

The E. H. O. Club has issued invitations for a dance to be given Saturday evening, April 9th, at Harmonie Hall. The affair will be in the nature of a third waltz party and barn dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Morris and family are occupying their new home at 2015 Lincoln avenue, having moved from 1534 Willow street.

The Little Bridge Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Bessie Wilson. The club has eight members, who play bridge semi-monthly.

Among the Stanford students who are spending the week's vacation in this city are the Misses Roberta Haskett, Adele Haskett, Helen White, Kessie Hall and Harry Squibbs, S. M. Haddett, Neil Wilson, Leiland Scott, Alfred Sundell, Tudor Tidman, Homer Spencer, Kenneth Abbott and Ford Clark.

Alvin Maser, a high school boy, is ill at the Alameda sanitarium, where he was taken several days ago.

WOULD RESTRICT CLUB FEDERATION

Town and Gown of Berkeley Disapproves Action of Convention.

BERKELEY, March 30.—Opposition to the practice of passing resolutions affecting public opinion without notice being given individual clubs by the State Federation of California Women's Clubs was voiced in resolutions passed by the Town and Gown Club of Berkeley. The resolutions expressing opposition to this plan is to be forwarded to the Santa Barbara convention and is the result of the action of the Dal Monte convention last year placing itself on record in opposition to the grant of the Hetch Hetchy valley as a national park.

The local club has taken no stand as to the Hetch Hetchy proposition, but believes that it is wrong to place the State Federation in the position of favoring or opposing a proposition upon which there may be a difference of opinion. Town and Gown club members will endeavor to be made a part of the constitution.

JOHN JANNEY MILLER in "Nero" cast.

BERKELEY, March 30.—Roman noses are not many on the campus of the University of California and the fact is troubling the English club, which has in hand at the present time the preparation of Stephen Phillips' drama, "Nero." Four ghosts of departed Roman emperors are called for by the cast, and in spite of a canon of the students, including the Senate and the football squad, the quota of Roman profiles is still sadly minus the desired number.

So far only John Janney Miller, student debater and college thespian, has qualified with this purpose. Out of several hundred applicants for honors in the aquiline nose contest, Miller showed up to advantage. Stub noses, crooked noses, noses beaklike and hooked, noses long and thin, noses fat and pudgy, were to be had in great numbers, but the peculiar dignity of the Roman nasal equipment was not to be found.

In view of this dearth of the regular prospectus, the English Club has obtained a Roman coin with the head of Caesar in profile, and this is now placed in a conspicuous place on the campus with a mirror beside it. The adventurous student who would try out his nose for a place in the cast of the Roman play is required to compare the feature part by part with the coin, and then, if he thinks himself eligible, to present his nose for examination before the judges.

Delbert Crane, leader of the University Cadet band, was thought to be a likely candidate, but as he has been detailed to the task of composing the incidental music for the play in the Greek theater, he has been excused from the Romanesque cast of the play. He is engaged in writing for orchestra and performance. "Nero" will be given in the Greek theater, provided the requisite number of Roman noses is forthcoming April 22, rehearsals now being under way for the big production.

MUST FIT COIN

BERKELEY, March 30.—Berkeley Nest of Owls entertained a large company of guests last evening, and the entertainment was greatly enjoyed. The new lodge room in Chase Hall was decorated with palms and flowers. A pleasing feature was the way in which musical numbers were interspersed among the dances. After the grand march and a two-step and a waltz there was a cornet solo, "Where Art Thou?" by A. E. Fouts. Mrs. Arthur to Brady's "Hill prano solo, "Your Dear Brown Eyes," was so highly appreciated that the singer was compelled to respond to an enthusiastic encore. Miss Jane Morgan tendered "Liebesraum, Nodurne No. 2, and was called on for other numbers, which were given with exquisite taste and brilliant technique. A. D. Schmitt gave a whistling solo. Coleman Schwartz was heard in monologues.

Knox College Glee Club Visits Campus

BERKELEY, March 30.—A dozen of Knox College Glee Club, Illinois, visited the campus yesterday morning as guests of the California musical clubs. The eastern singers arrived Monday in Hetch Hetchy and gave a concert over the Santa Fe, similar to that taken from the California musicians. A number of California singers went out to Richmond Monday evening to attend the final concert.

The university musical clubs hoped to give a joint concert with the Knox College singers in Harmonie gymnasium last night, but the latter were unable to accept the invitation as they had to leave yesterday for Los Angeles, where they are to give a concert independently.

BOARD APPROVES PLAN FOR CLINIC

Alameda County Dental Society Receives Endorsement of Berkeley Educators

BERKELEY, March 30.—At the regular meeting of the Berkeley Board of Education last night it was decided to set aside a room in the Berkeley high school for the dental clinic for school children to be established by the Alameda County Dental Society. The room is to be apparatus, the funds for this to be raised by a benefit show to be given at the Orpheum Monday night, April 11.

The board of education have given their approval to the project, and have informally decided to occupy a box at the benefit night at the Orpheum. The clinic will be occupied by the Oakland Board of Education, by a delegation from the San Francisco Dental Association, and by others who are backing the movement. Dr. M. Thayer Rhodes is chairman of the Berkeley committee.

The board last night appointed as school census enumerators Robert Flannery, Cecil M. Cole, Henry Conway, C. F. Fraser, Stuart Wilson and Henry Thompson. The census will be taken between April 15 and May 1.

WOULD RESTRICT CLUB FEDERATION

Town and Gown of Berkeley Disapproves Action of Convention.

BERKELEY, March 30.—Opposition to the practice of passing resolutions affecting public opinion without notice being given individual clubs by the State Federation of California Women's Clubs was voiced in resolutions passed by the Town and Gown Club of Berkeley. The resolutions expressing opposition to this plan is to be forwarded to the Santa Barbara convention and is the result of the action of the Dal Monte convention last year placing itself on record in opposition to the grant of the Hetch Hetchy valley as a national park.

The local club has taken no stand as to the Hetch Hetchy proposition, but believes that it is wrong to place the State Federation in the position of favoring or opposing a proposition upon which there may be a difference of opinion. Town and Gown club members will endeavor to be made a part of the constitution.

CAT IS ENTOMBED UNDER CITY HALL

Mewling of Feline Arouses Superstitious Fears of Police.

BERKELEY, March 30.—Moans and wails and cries of anguish resounded through the basement of the City Hall for two nights this week, disturbing the peace of night. Sergeant Tom Woolley, station and creating strange fears in the hearts of the local police, investigation ordered by Chief Vollmer traced the noise to an imprisoned cat under the cement steps of the building.

The cat, like the feline of doom in "The Black Cat," became walled up beneath the cement steps of the building. To release the animal from its captivity it was necessary to tunnel under the cement steps for several feet, and when this was accomplished a lean and hungry grey tabby made her appearance. The police department decided to keep her for a mascot, and have named her "Marmion," after the heroine of Scott's "Marmion," who suffered a like fate.

ALLENDALE CLUB DEMANDS SEWERS

Sanitary Trustees Will Be Requested to Afford Relief.

FRUITVALE, March 30.—It was officially reported to the members of the Allendale Improvement Club at their meeting last night that, according to the court decision, the sanitary trustees of the annexed district would hold office and that the sanitary board would meet Friday night.

The club members are planning a number of requests to be presented to the trustees, asking that the sanitary condition of the neighborhood, which is said to be deplorable and is often a menace to the health of the residents, be immediately improved now that funds are available.

The request sent to the county clerk to appoint a deputy registration clerk for the district was answered in a communication from that official last night, who stated that he had acceded to the desire of the club members and had appointed W. E. Sansome, of 2333 Edison street.

OPEN MEETINGS

A committee was appointed to take charge of the monthly open meetings of the club for the next six months. It will be the duty of the committee to arrange programs for the evenings of entertainment and take full charge of the event. The committee consists of Louis Helms, C. V. Dowd, R. I. Clarke, A. E. Neigren, and Rev. Hugh Baker.

A representative of the Laurel Improvement Club was present last night in an endeavor to interest the Allendale members in the petition which is being circulated by his club, asking that a free public library and reading room be established at the junction of Redwood road and School street. It was stated that the library will then be an equal distance from all three schools of the district. The Allendale club members will assist the petitioners in their endeavor.

ASK FERRY RATES FOR DOCK WORKERS

Millmen's Union Will Give a Ladies' Night on Its Anniversary.

In order to obtain relief for the workers on the Long wharf, mostly members of the Longshoremen and Dock Employees Union, communication rates on the Southern Pacific, riding on the wharf, work, the Building Trades Council last night instructed Secretary F. H. Pratt of that organization to communicate with the railway company, asking rates for the men on the ground and for the dock. Their work was done for the company. The men are engaged in loading cars from the ships moored at the Long wharf, which is Southern Pacific property, and according to the local police, the men should be classed as railway employees in order to receive the employees' commutation rates.

The members of the Longshoremen's union are at present paying full fares for their trips to work, and it is possible that arrangements can be made with the railroad company which will get for these men the lower rates.

MOHR CONTRACTS

All union men were warned last night by the Building Trades Council to refuse to work on any of the contracts of George Mohr, the Berkeley contractor, whose firm was called off some time ago on account of trouble over the employment of non-union men. This warning was given specially for the benefit of sub-contractors employing union men, and the council voted to expel from the union any union man who worked on the contracts of the Berkeley builder. Mohr is one of the most important contractors in Berkeley, and at present has a number of contracts standing idle on account of the strike.

PLACED ON FAIR LIST

A communication from the Los Angeles Building Trades Council, reinstating the firm of C. W. Goldwater, over-see makers, on the fair list of the council, and D. W. Bonset was appointed delegate from the Machine-men's union to take the place of former delegate E. G. Casad, who resigned from his post at the meeting of the council on account of being about to leave this city.

Preparations have started for the affiliation of all Building Trades unions with the order of the San Francisco Building Trades Council, and delegates from the different unions under the building organization will be seated at the next meeting of the Central body. Although the unions, as well as the Building Trades Council, will send delegates to the Central Council, the Building Trades Council will maintain the same position in regard to its affiliated unions, and it is expected that the Iron Trades Council, the only union now outside of the Central Council, will affiliate with that body within the next six months.

INVESTIGATE ENGINEERS

In order to investigate rumors regarding the unionization of applications for membership in the stationary engineering union, C. D. Lather, D. F. Dwyer and D. McGuire of the Building Trades Council were last night appointed to investigate the matter, which state that a competent man, who is a member of the union, has no legitimate objections, was refused admittance into the union. This the engineers refuse to discuss.

The building of the Building Trades Council will be the subject of the next Friday night of the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the founding of the millmen's union, when the workers will give a "ladies' night" at the union headquarters. A musical program, informal banquet and dance will be features of the occasion.

Contest for Queen of Eagles' Fruitvale Fair Grows Lively

MISS EMMA POOL, a candidate for queen of Fruitvale Eagles' carnival.

FRUITVALE, March 30.—The contest for queen of the Eagles' carnival to be held here May 24 to 27, started Sunday and will be in full swing inside of a week. Already votes are being sold in large numbers and it is thought that the contest will be a lively one.

Miss Emma Pool, a graduate of the local high school, who is known in social circles in this vicinity, was offered the support of the Golden Link, Rebekah Lodge No. 105, at the meeting of the organization last Wednesday night. She has not yet signified her intention of entering the contest, although her many friends are exerting their influence to have her made queen.

The name of Miss Florence Magnus of the banking men, has also been submitted to the committee. This summer, the charge of J. C. Holland, president of the Fruitvale Aeris, who has been appointed business director of the fair. The rules governing the contest are that the candidates shall be residents of Fruitvale and that they shall send communications regarding their intention of entering the race to J. C. Holland.

P. O. box 45, Fruitvale. It has been stipulated that each aspirant must accompany her application by her photograph. The votes are on sale at Philip & Philip, druggists, and the Dawson Drug Company.

The decoration committee has decided to place a large hand painting of the Mardi Gras queen illuminated with electric lights at the intersection of Thirty-fourth avenue and East Fourteenth street.

From the Southern Pacific station to East Seventeenth street, on Fruitvale avenue, and from the public library to Melrose station, on East Fourteenth street, the streets will be banked with flags, banners and hand paintings of various kinds representing the cardinal principles of the order. An arch to be known as the Arch of a Thousand Candles, will be suspended from the corner of East Fourteenth street and Fruitvale avenue. This will be one of the principal decorative features of the carnival.

Under the supervision of Assemblyman George J. Hans an elaborate program is being arranged for the event.

OAKLAND BANKERS Y.W.C.A. MEMBERS ELECT DELEGATES AT CONFERENCE

Three Men Will Be Chosen to Attend Convention in Tennessee.

Oakland Council of the American Federation of Bankers is preparing to send delegates to the National Convention of the Y.W.C.A. which will meet in Chattanooga, Tenn., this summer. The delegates from Oakland will be elected at the next meeting of the bankers, besides which F. M. Cerini, national executive committee member of the institute, living in Oakland, will visit the convention. F. W. Morrish of Berkeley, Charles Dunsmuir and John S. Kilham, officers of the Oakland Council, will also visit the big meeting.

A debate on the proposed ship subsidy will take place April 21st between the Oakland and San Francisco chapters of the institute. The Oakland team will be composed of G. L. Downing, J. E. Gustafson and Kenneth A. Milliken and will take place at the Y.W.C.A. building. The San Francisco team, which is the only men so far chosen on the San Francisco team. Several San Francisco and Oakland lawyers and judges will be chosen to act as judges for the affair.

Davis Not Victim Of Mine Accident

Mystery surrounds the identity of the man who last Saturday fell to his death from a bucket in the Eureka mine, Butte Creek, while at the surface in the mine shaft. The man was supposed to be at first to have been Arthur W. Davis of 2111 Prince street, South Berkeley, but reports in person from the latter show him to be very much alive.

The man, with an Italian companion, was rising to the surface in the mine cage when an entanglement of wire caused the bucket to turn turtle, precipitating the two men to the bottom. Both were mangled beyond recognition.

Clinton Club Thanks Public Works Board

On receipt of a communication from the Clinton Improvement Club, thanking the Board of Public Works for the work being done on the Eighth-street bridge and the opening of the street in the morning, the board this morning requested the secretary to communicate with the club and advise the members that the work would be continued there with all possible speed and the street and bridge placed in a first-class condition.

School Children to Sing Old Melodies

Preparations are being made by the Peralta Mothers' Club of North Oakland for a concert to be given by the children of the Peralta School in Lincoln Hall, Berkeley, on April 5. The affair is being designed by Mrs. A. Coleman, who will act as musical director, and the children will be employed in the music where they are known as a "Young Old Folks' Quartet" and old-time melodies will form the greater part of the program. The affair will be given for the benefit of the club.

CIVIL ENGINEERS TO HOLD BANQUET

Student Organization of California Will Entertain Graduates.

BERKELEY, March 30.—The annual banquet of the Civil Engineering Association will be held Saturday evening, April 2, at the Bay State Cafe in San Francisco.

The banquet will be attended by a large number of prominent alumni, besides a big delegation of active members of the association.

An unusually good program has been arranged for the evening by the committee in charge, and includes several prominent engineers who will speak. Professor C. Derleth Jr., dean of the college of civil engineering, will act as toastmaster.

Any principal speaker of the evening will be Mr. Henry, editor of the Engineering Record. The other speakers will be Mr. E. Hunt, former professor at the University, and Professor F. C. Hunt, of the astronomical department. The Alameda quartet, composed of G. B. Nevitt, H. H. Hunt, Dean George May, '10 and C. W. Maitel, '10, will render several selections.

Any associate members of the club or sophomores who wish to attend should see one of the following members of the association committee: O. L. Maitel, '10 (chairman), D. E. Chase, '10, Whitton, '10, Gus Olson, '11, and E. P. Cylker, '11.

CEYLON TEA CROP SHOWS INCREASE

Production Last Year Nearly Million Pounds More Than for 1908.

LONDON, March 30.—The report of the committee of the Planters' Association of Ceylon, just issued, gives interesting statements of the crops for 1909 and estimates for 1910.

The tea production was more than 1,000,000 pounds, about 12,000,000 more than the last previous year's and about 400,000 pounds less than is expected this year. Three thousand acres were cleared and planted with tea in 1909, and in 1909 for two cents a pound more than in 1908.

The Agri Tea company has paid ten and one-half per cent. The Pitaconda Tea company has paid eighteen per cent. The Colombo Tea company has paid twenty-five per cent. The set profit rubber was forty-two per cent on the capital. The Dickova Tea company has paid eight per cent. The Nabalva Tea company has paid eighteen per cent.

Shipments of rubber during 1909 amounted to 1,452,550 pounds, and the crop for 1910 is estimated at 2,000,000 pounds. Record prices were obtained for rubber, the highest being 3s. 8 1/2d. in London, and Rs. 1.20 in Colombo.

The cacao crop for 1909 is 60,000 hundred weight. The estimate for 1910 is 70,000 hundred weight.

Cardamoms, which have been extensively cultivated in the United States at America, are now Ceylon's fourth largest customer as regards this product. The good prices, and 75,000 pounds were sold. For this year 650,000 pounds are estimated.

Coconut palm products (oil, copra, peccans, etc.) have also done remarkably well.

FATE OF OFFICERS STILL IN DOUBT

Policemen, Under Investigation, Must Wait Until Next Saturday.

The five policemen who are under investigation, will not hear of their fate until the next meeting of the commission," said Mayor Mott this morning, in an interview with the police commission at which there was no discussion of the recent police charges, or of the executive session held last Saturday morning at which the commission considered the evidence against the members of the force in order to determine on public trials.

"We have not yet decided the police cases," continued the Mayor today, when interviewed. He did not know what position will be made of the matter. Since the meeting last Saturday we have not considered the charges and will not do so until the next meeting, Wednesday of next week.

The policemen against whom charges, trivial and great, have been registered are: Sergeant Byrne and Patrolmen McCord, S. Smith, James F. Flynn and Con Koe.

It was also stated by the Mayor that at the Wednesday meeting the new appointments provided for by the ordinance adopted by the City Council will be made.

Voluntarily Increases Wage of Its Trainmen

Pennsylvania System Adds $10,000,000 to Its Expense Account.

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—It was announced today that the boards of directors of all the railroads comprising the Pennsylvania railroad system, in consideration of the high cost of living had ordered a voluntary advance of 5 per cent in the wages of employees who receive less than $200 a month. The increase affects 198,000 men and involves an addition to about $10,000,000 of the pay rolls of the companies. This is the third general voluntary increase in wages granted by the Pennsylvania in the last eight years.

Rescuers Find Dead Body of Pickering

MONROVIA, Cal., March 30.—The body of William Pickering, who was entombed in a well on the Broadway car line, was found today at a depth of 60 feet. It was necessary to dig a shaft passing the wall to reach it.

"There Is a Way Out" It Is FOURTH AVENUE HEIGHTS

Monday we put up to every man of moderate means the hard problem that confronts him because of increasing high prices.

Yesterday we showed the way out, which is to get a grip on real property increasing rapidly in value, and thus become the GAINER by higher prices, not the LOSER—the BENEFICIARY, not the VICTIM.

Today we give the whole story. Today we show you in detail just how you can go about it to secure your future. Here is the whole proposition. Read every word. You cannot afford NOT to. It concerns your own future welfare, your wife's and your children's.

FIRST

The City of Oakland in its rapid growth has flung along the lower slopes of the encircling hills hundreds of beautiful homes, till now but ONE more moderate-priced hillside residence tract remains CLOSE IN to the center of the city. That one tract is FOURTH AVENUE HEIGHTS.

Beyond the lower hillslopes are deep canyons that mark FOR ALL TIME the natural boundary of the city.

The city in its growth has gone square up against the unrepeatable decree of nature.

Oakland will have thousands and hundreds of thousands more people, but never another acre of such land as this to the end of time.

creasing in value, for the increase in prices makes its purchasing power constantly less. Year by year persons who let their money lie dead are growing poorer instead of richer. What do they fear? Loss.

LOSS IN CLOSE-IN PROPERTY IMPOSSIBLE

You CAN lose your money. Buy a lot on the foggy side of a sand dune, and it may refuse to increase in value. Race out of the city ten, twenty, thirty or forty miles and buy at a fictitious price a patch of land whose proper function is raising beans and potatoes and you may lose out. But it is absolutely impossible to lose by investing money in beautiful hill slope property fifteen minutes from the center of a great and growing city of 300,000 people.

Your absolute insurance is the fact that population DOES and WILL and MUST increase. As Henry Miller once said:

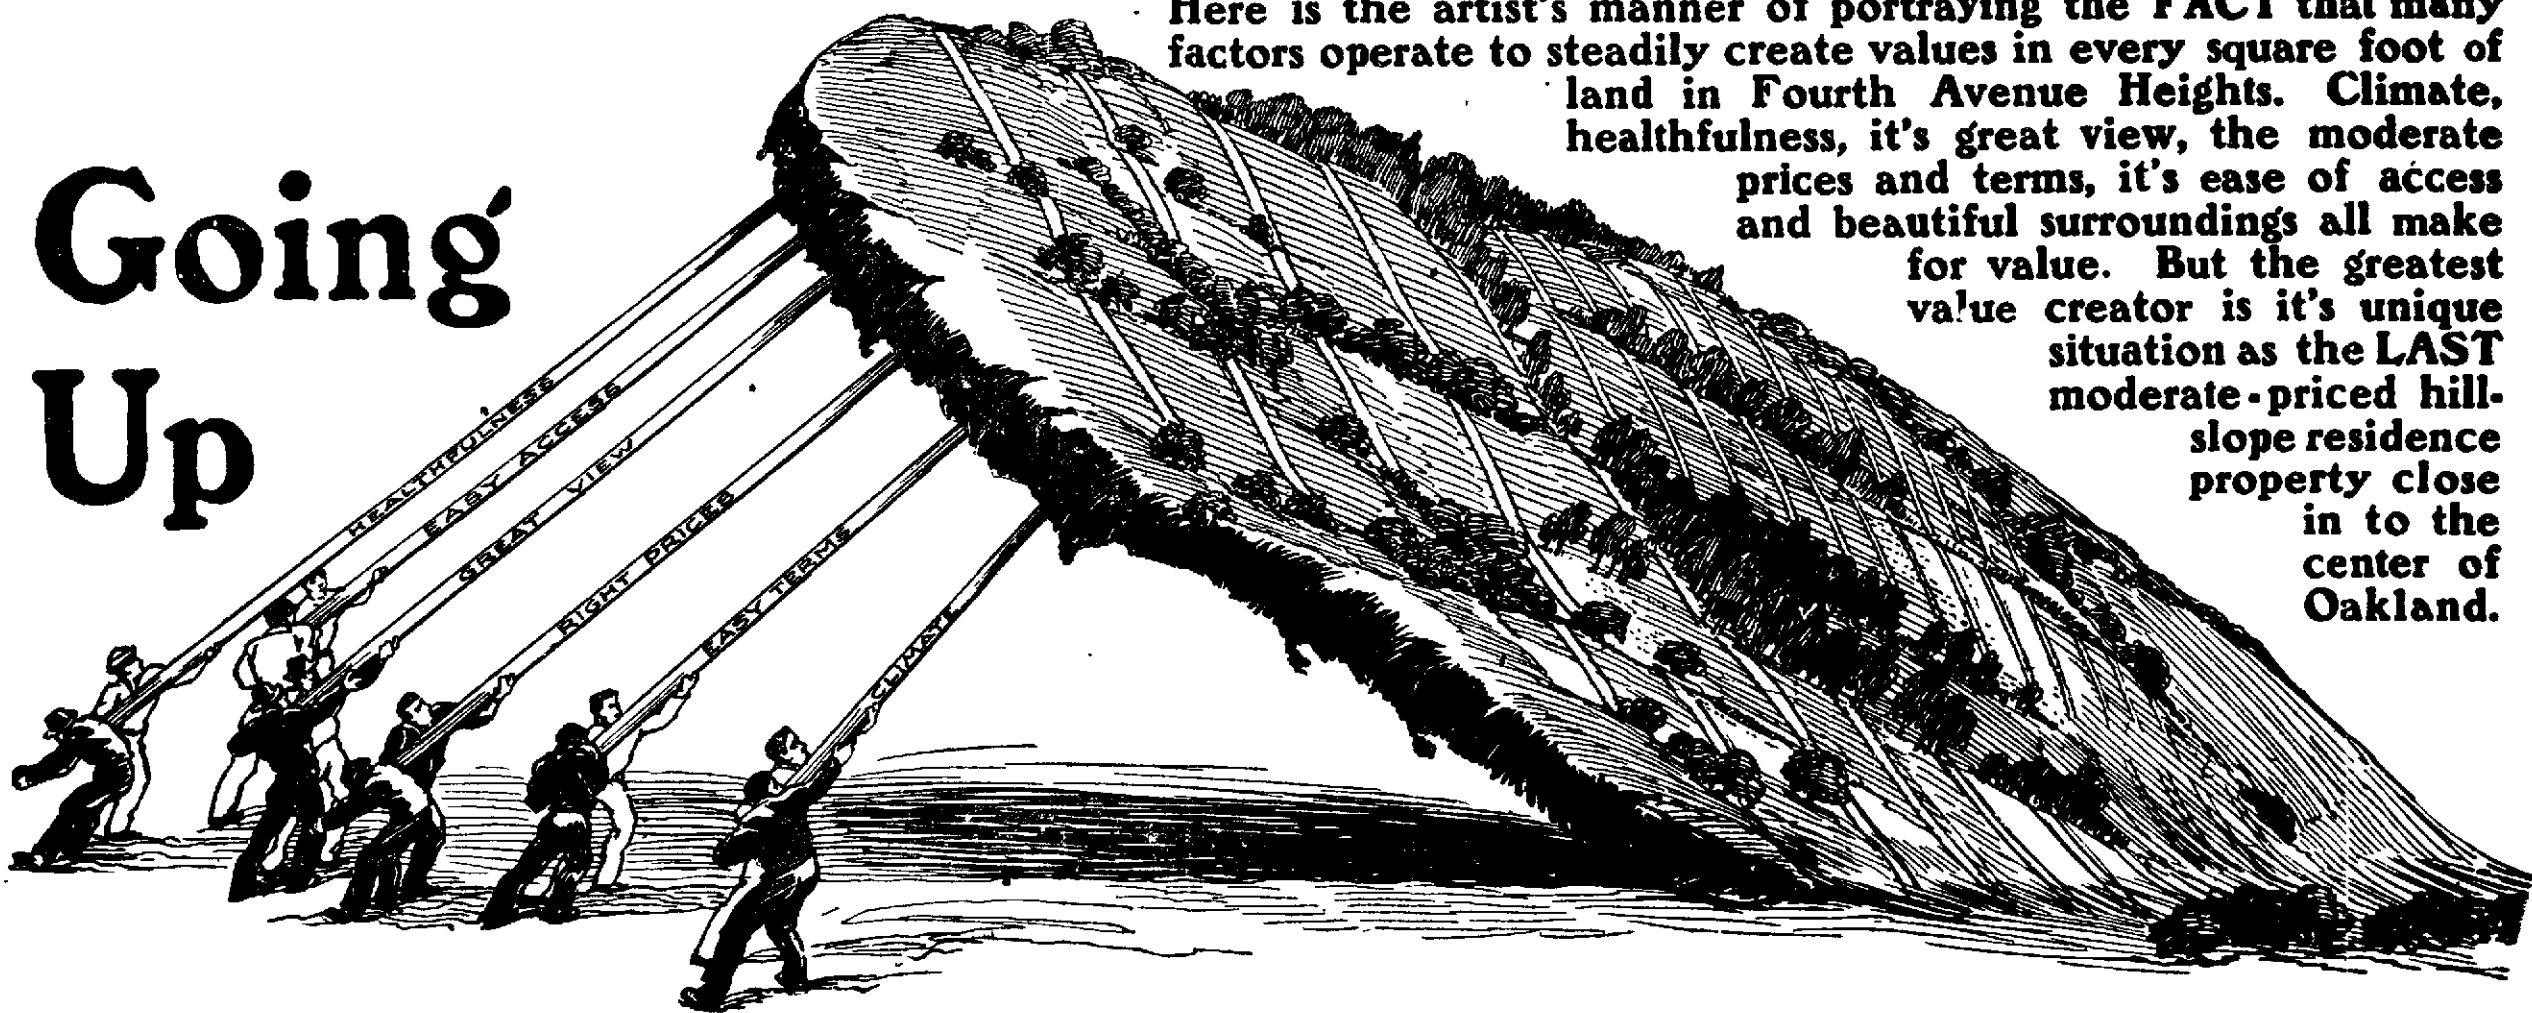

"God is making more people all the time, but no more land."

(He made millions in land)

And as for the good faith, the integrity and reputation for fair dealing of the firm of Wickham Havens Incorporated, the whole of the city of Piedmont is the visible and enduring testimony to the manner in which this firm carries out its obligations.

Going Up

Here is the artist's manner of portraying the FACT that many factors operate to steadily create values in every square foot of land in Fourth Avenue Heights. Climate, healthfulness, it's great view, the moderate prices and terms, it's ease of access and beautiful surroundings all make for value. But the greatest value creator is it's unique situation as the LAST moderate-priced hill-slope residence property close in to the center of Oakland.

SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1910.

Three days from today—we shall place this tract, Fourth Avenue Heights, on public sale for the first time.

No one, we believe, alive to local conditions, will fail to realize the deep significance of this announcement.

No one who will not see that in the unique character of Fourth Avenue Heights, as THE LAST FIFTEEN MINUTE TRACT lies an unprecedented opportunity for the investor as well as the last chance of the home-builder.

Fourth Avenue Heights has as fine a marine view as exists, the land itself lies beautifully, the climate is perfection, the drainage excellent.

The street car line is now being extended, bringing the property within fifteen minutes of the center of the city.

Right across the street is our last previous tract, where $200,000 in charming modern homes have been built this last year. The street work will be the best that modern skill can execute.

All these are value making factors, but the thing that makes Fourth Avenue Heights the ONE best place for investment in the Bay cities today is the fact that it is the LAST moderate priced close-in hill slope tract that will ever be placed on sale.

That is what makes it "the way out" for the average man.

He can be sure that values here MUST increase, and rapidly.

He can see that by getting a grip on a piece of land where the factors that make for profit ALL FOCUS, he becomes a SHARER in this rapid increase of values.

Every increase in population, every rail laid, every manufactory established, every house built, is his gain, his profit.

DEAD MONEY

In San Francisco and Oakland today there are thousands of dollars in money that is virtually dead. It is earning nothing or so little as to be scarcely worth counting. In fact, it is actually de-

In the past few years the hill slopes that overlook Oakland and the bay have become covered with the finest homes in the west.

We have marketed $3,330,000 in property.

Residences have been erected upon it to the sum of $3,675,000.

We have built thirty-seven miles of streets.

We have built seventy-four miles of sidewalks.

This firm is indissolubly associated with the constant growth and welfare of Oakland.

Working from north to south along the lower hill slopes we have built up tract after tract. One after another the slopes have been covered with residences and lawns. Hundreds have found an ideal home life. Hundreds more have made profitable investments. From Piedmont proper on the north we have developed successively Piedmont-by-the-Lake, East Piedmont Heights and two Fourth Avenue Heights tracts, all on gently sloping hills that curve around the level ends of the business section.

Fourth Avenue Heights is the last of our tracts lying on this side—the right side—of the deep canyons, and will be developed in the same manner with the same regard to detail as all our hillside parks of homes.

Loss is impossible. Gain is certain.

And no man has adequate and reasonable excuse for letting his money lie dead and useless, earning little or nothing—even actually decreasing in value through its diminishing purchasing power in the face of this unique opportunity, combining certain gain with absolute safety.

Fourth Avenue Heights is to be placed on public sale beginning Saturday morning, April 2, 1910. Our office will be open at 8 o'clock. As the number of lots is strictly limited, it is highly probable that a large proportion of them will be informally selected before the actual opening of the sale. We caution prospective buyers, therefore, and especially those who propose purchasing more than one lot, against delay in making their selections. Lots which persons are "considering" will not be reserved from sale if other persons want them.

To reach Fourth Avenue Heights from San Francisco take Key Route Oakland train, transferring for Twelfth and Broadway. Walk up Broadway one block and take car with red star.

KING BASEBALL IS ENTHRONED IN SPORTDOM

Seals and Beavers Will Play at Freeman's Park Tomorrow

ALIENS TO PLAY FIRST LEAGUE GAME IN CITY

San Francisco and Portland Will Start Official Baseball Season at Freeman's Park Tomorrow

By FRANK R. HAVENNER.

Freeman's baseball park out on San Pablo avenue will be the mecca of the local baseball bugs tomorrow afternoon when the Coast League season will be inaugurated on this side of the bay at 3 o'clock. Owing to the fact that the Oakland team is away from home, having gone to Sacramento to open the season there with the Senators there will not be any formal parade in connection with tomorrow's opening here but there will be a little ceremony at the park.

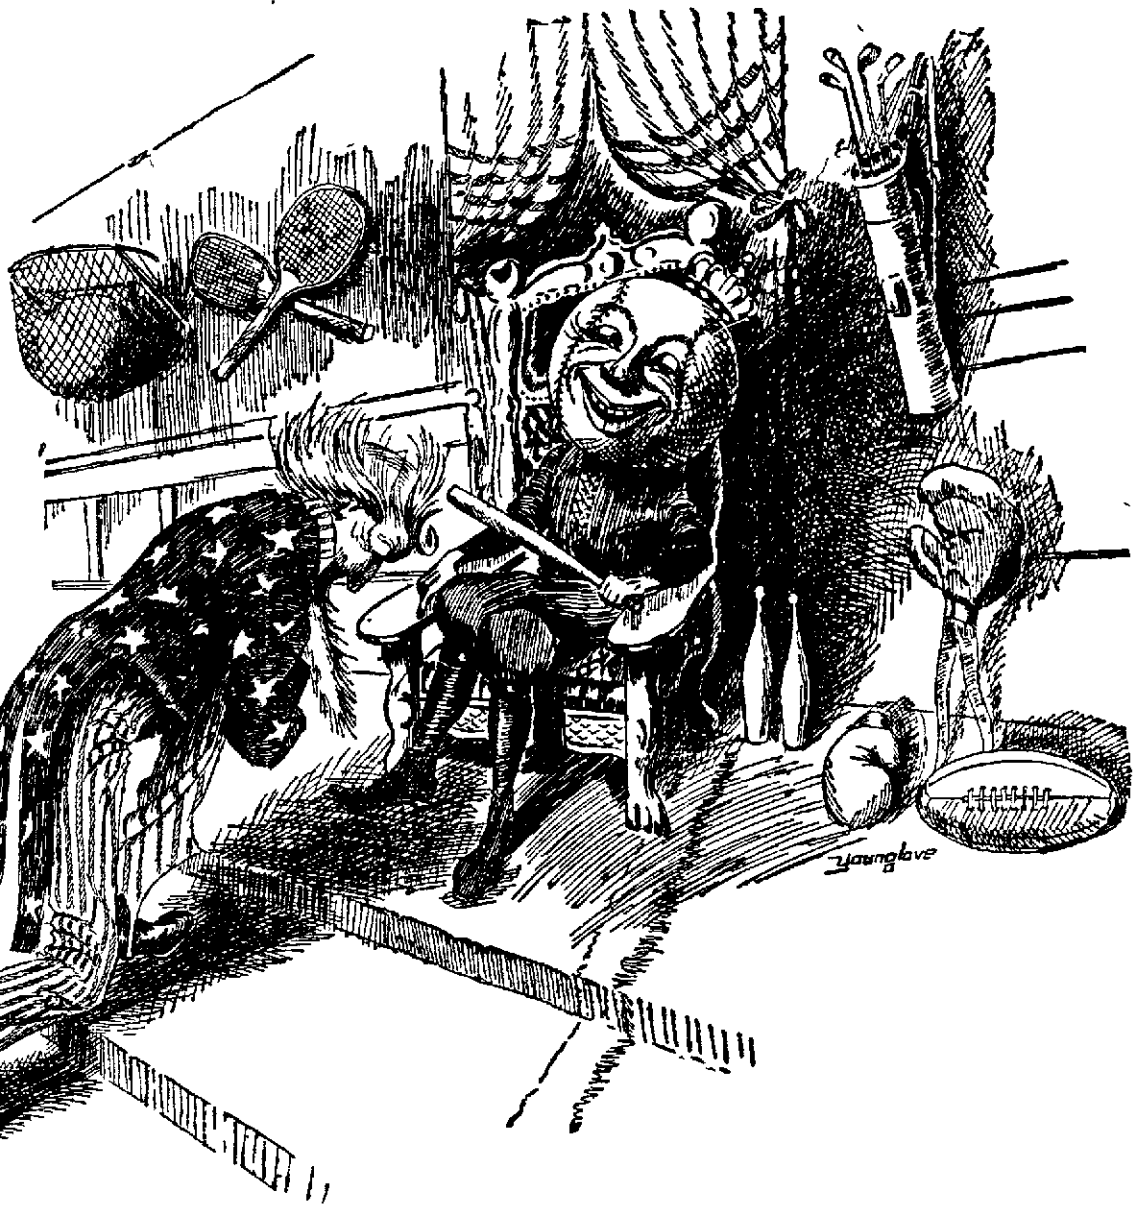

LOCAL CELEBRATION

As stated Ote has "went but Casey the clever second sacker is back again at the middle station for McCredie after a season in the Northwest League. Casey is one of the most popular players on the Coast and he will be warmly welcomed back.

The opening game of the Oaks on the home grounds next Thursday will be made a gala event by the local management. The members of the Progress and Prosperity Committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will be the special guests of the occasion. The directors of the Oakland Club were much pleased by the courtesies shown the members of the Oakland team last week in the shape of the Forum luncheon and the auto ride about the city and environs and they have invited the boosters of the Chamber of Commerce to be their guests at the opening game of the home team here to help "root" for Oakland. San Francisco will be the opposing team in this game and a great contest is expected. With the backing of the Progress and Prosperity boosters the Oakland Club directors feel that the boys will put forth every effort to land their home city in front in the Coast League pennant race.

KLING MUST PAY BIG FINE AND PLAY WITH CHICAGO TEAM ONLY

CHICAGO, March 30.—A special to the Tribune from Kansas City says that John Kling, former Chicago National League catcher, must pay fines aggregating $700 out of his own pocket and return to the Chicago Club for the season of 1910 at a salary of $1500, which he was receiving in 1908, as the price of his reinstatement to organized baseball. The Chicago Club also is prohibited for the period of one year from selling, trading or releasing Kling to any other club.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, THE MONARCH OF THE FANS, RULES SUPREME.

KLING REINSTATED, BUT MUST PAY $700 FINE

President Murphy of Chicago May Be Punished for Submitting Contract

CINCINNATI, March 30.—John O. Kling, the premier catcher of the Chicago Nationals, will be reinstated in organized baseball on his payment of a fine of $700, according to the decision of the National commission made public today. The decision was signed only by Chairman August Hermann and Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National league, and the name of B. B. Johnson, president of the American league is missing.

The commission will require Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago Nationals to show cause why he should not be fined at least $200 for violation of rule 47, which forbids a club to submit a contract to an ineligible player. Furthermore, the Chicago club will not be allowed to trade, sell or release Kling for one season, nor will it be permitted to pay Kling's fine, directly or indirectly, under a "severe penalty."

Kling was fined not for his failure to report to the Chicago club, nor for the violation of his contract, but solely for his connection with the Missouri Athletic Club semi-professional team of Kansas City and his playing with and against ineligible players during the time he was with that club.

Kling will also be required to carry out the terms of his original contract which still has one more season to run. This called for a salary of $1500 a year. The commission states that Kling's action cannot be termed a "violation of contract," as it has been understood and accepted in baseball law.

In speaking of the leave of absence granted Kling by Murphy on April 24, 1908, the decision says that Murphy's statements are misleading. It says that the leave of absence has no bearing upon the case as "it was not one entered into or agreed upon in good faith."

The commission takes occasion to explain its action in reinstating Hal Chase of the New York American's last season, saying it was not granted because of his ability as a player, but because there were many extenuating circumstances.

KLING WILL PLAY.

KANSAS CITY, March 30.—"To know the National Commission is the court of last resort in baseball and when it tells a fellow to do his best to do it," said John Kling today. "I think the fine is too high and it is not my liking to play for a salary of $1500, but I love baseball and I am willing to meet the conditions in order to get back into the game."

"I would rather play in Chicago than any place on earth. The fans in that city have always been very kind to me and I tell you I shall be mighty glad to get back into a Chicago uniform."

"I received no official notification of any kind, but I expected to be notified of the decision soon and I shall join the Chicago club at their spring practice camp."

"It was impossible for me to play baseball last year because my business here was in it. I expected to be notified of the decision soon and I shall join the Chicago club at their spring practice camp."

Asked to discuss the rumor that President Murphy of the Chicago National League club would pay his fine, Kling said:

"That is ridiculous. I will pay the fine myself of course. Mr. Murphy would have no right to pay it. Besides such an action on his part would be a violation of the conditions outlined by the National Commission."

CHANCE KNOWS NOTHING. NASHVILLE, March 30.—Manager Frank Chance, who is here to watch the Chicago Nationals was asked today for a statement with regard to the reinstatement of Catcher Kling. He said he had received no official notification and declined to discuss the case.

JOHNSON RETICENT. EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., March 30.—"I have nothing to add to the statement I made to an Associated Press representative here on March 25th in regard to the case of John Kling," said E. B. Johnson, president of the American League, today. "That statement represents my views on the subject and I will now say nothing more about the case at this time."

Hayward Cubs to Play Fast San Mateo Nine

HAYWARD, March 30.—The Hayward Cubs will journey to San Mateo Sunday to cross bats with the fast team of that place. Hayward has been unbeaten this season and has defeated some eleven teams. The San Mateo boys have been playing in good form, and a fast game is expected.

The batteries will be as follows: Hayward—Gibbs and Earle; Hayward Cub—Arlett and Jackson.

It has been said—Goodness is always on the inside.

Portland and San Francisco will be the participants in the opening game here tomorrow and, as the Northerners have not shown in this vicinity during the practice season, there will be much curiosity to see just how they stack up. One familiar face will be missed from the line-up of the Ducks—the mighty Ote Johnson who broke up many a game with his big club. Ote has migrated to the New York Highlands at least temporarily and his place at the difficult corner has been taken by Netzel late of the Three-I League who was tried out by the Cleveland Club last fall. He did not prove to be quite strong enough for the big fellows but nevertheless is said to be a very nifty performer although he will

Stanford Oarsmen to Be Guests at Annual U. C. Boat Club Jinks

BERKELEY, March 30.—In addition to being a gathering of California men interested in boating, the annual Boat Club Smoker, which will take place on Saturday evening, April 2, will be an entertainment to the Stanford crew who come up to race the California men on that day.

The program will consist chiefly of athletic events and music. Among the former will be wrestling and boxing contests. The University band will furnish several musical selections during the evening and a vocal quartet has been invited to sing. Refreshments will also be served.

If possible special cars are to be procured to conduct the crowd down to the Anador the club's headquarters on the estuary. Connections may also be made by taking any car to Eighth and Broadway, then transferring east on Eighth street and getting off and walking due south to Fifth avenue.

The Legation Club of Stanford is planning to send up an eight and a freshman four to race corresponding crews from the California club that morning on the estuary. The four will row over a course of one mile while the eight will row the regular distance.

Indoor Game Won by National and Forest

Two games of indoor baseball were played last night at Piedmont skating pavilion. The first, between the Mutuals and the National Union, was won by the former by a score of 10 to 8. Euntain showed improved form in the box for the Mutuals.

The second game between Forest Camp and Oakland Farlor was a gift for Forest. This was a listless game. Orbell holding the Natives at his mercy. The redeeming feature were two assists by Hahn from deep left to third and a one-hand catch on first by Lyons of Forest. Oakland Farlor and Brooklyn will go against the Nationals.

COAST RUGBY TEAM MAY CROSS SEAS

Australians Want California Colleges to Send Picked Men on Tour.

BERKELEY, March 30.—Graduate Manager R. P. Merritt of the University of California has recently received a cablegram from Secretary Hill of the New South Wales Rugby Union inviting an All-Star Pacific Coast Rugby team to make a tour of Australia and New Zealand during the summer.

The Australian union reserves the right to pick the men to compose the team and has sent such a list of twenty players, including eleven from California, six from Stanford, two from Nevada, and one from St. Mary's college. It has been found that a number of the men selected at the several institutions can not go and it is desirable that the universities pick their own men to fill these vacant positions.

Several of the coaches deem it inadvisable to send an aggregation of less than thirty men, because a schedule of about twelve games would be played in a short period of time and this program would be too strenuous for a squad of twenty.

AMERICANS ARE COLD AND UNAPPRECIATIVE, IS PAULHAN'S PLAIN

CHERBOURG, March 30.—M. Paulhan, French aviator, who landed here last night from the steamer President Grant, expressed bitter sentiments with reference to his trip to the United States. He said enthusiasm was shown only in the cities where there was a large French colony. The Americans were unmoved, despite his most daring feats.

"It is the only public in the world," said Paulhan, "which is not interested in the man who flies. The Americans are jealous that a Frenchman could fly in a French machine."

The trip will start, if the plans go through, about the middle of June and will return the end of August.

FAST FIGHTERS TO MIX IT AT DREAMLAND

Keller and Brooks Will Furnish Main Event at Charlie Cleaver's Show

Now that the Barry-Burns embroglio has been settled, fans on both sides of the bay are looking forward with great interest to Charlie Cleaver's show in Dreamland Friday night. Terry Keller and Freddie Brooks, the rival middleweights who have already furnished two whirlwind bouts, will appear in the main event. Both battles of the middleweights were fought on this side of the bay and Oakland fans can get an inkling of the brand of milling the pair will supply over the four-round route. Adding interest to the scrap is the fact that each of the fighters is training with the idea of knocking the other out and four rounds should see the middleweights in whirlwind action until the time-keeper's count ends hostilities.

Jeff Perry will also take the trip across the bay Friday night to hook up with Nick Harding. Harding is considered a good boy on the other side of the pond and if Perry can beat him he'll own the town. Quite a delegation of Oakland fans are going over to see this fight, if only to see Perry in action. He never fails to give the fans a run for the money.

Cleaver's card in full will bring the best four-rounders in the game across the bay into conflict. Jeff O'Connell, a late arrival from west coast, who figures in a draw with Voltagast and fought Danny Goodman and other good men, will meet Jimmy Roegan. This fight should be a luscious treat. O'Connell is fighting for everything or nothing, just to show the fans that he is all that his reputation claims for him. Frankie Harris, also a good Eastern man, who fought Joe Leahy to a standstill at a recent wheelmen's show over here, will make his bow to the fans in a bout against Charlie Rogers.

There are any number of good fights on Cleaver's card that should attract more than the usual quota of fans from Oakland. Eddie Madison and Joe Carroll will appear in one of the special attractions and those little slam-bang bantams, Eddie Campi and Willie McNeill, are a card in themselves. Dick Hart will fight Cyclone Clark in a preliminary and Eddie Marrow will hook up with Louis Hahn.

Cleaver will start his show promptly at 8:15 so that the fans on this side of the bay can get home before midnight.

Reliance Club Bouts Provide Good Sport

The Reliance Athletic Club held their monthly boxing bouts last night at their clubhouse, Thirteenth and Harrison streets.

Fred Wright of the Reliance club fought Jack Ryan, United Railroads club, for the welterweight championship. Wright, after three rounds of fast fighting, gained the decision over Ryan.

Jack Bolvere fouled Jimmy Knott in the second round and Knott was given the decision. S. Munro gained the decision over Ed Ryan after three rounds of fast fighting. Earl Russell was knocked out by Fred Hamman in the second. J. Swan lost to Manuel Veloz after three rounds. Ed Smith won a decision after four rounds of fast milling with Young Ryan.

A fair-sized crowd witnessed the boxing. Chester McIntyre refereed the bouts, which were three-round goes.

KETCHEL STICKS TO SALOON DESPITE HIS THEATRICAL MANAGER

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., March 30.—Stanley Ketchel had a few anxious moments here last night after he had refused to leave a saloon to fill an engagement to box at one of the local theaters. Ketchel had been billed to appear here, and hearing that he had been drinking very hard at Greensburg several of the Johnstown men went over to that place last night and this morning brought Ketchel to Johnstown, but once here he managed to escape the vigilance of his guards and disappeared.

The theater where he was to appear was filled early in the evening, but Ketchel did not appear. The theater management sent out runners and soon found him, but the middle weight said he would not think of going on to box with any one this week and added, "It's too much like work."

The theater management and the men who had taken charge of Ketchel finally fixed matters up after the audience had been given its money back.

Acme Club Members To Tramp, 200 Strong, To Lafayette Sunday

The Acme Athletic club, about 200 strong, will take a tramp Sunday to Lafayette, a distance of about 30 miles for the round trip. Preparations are being made at Lafayette to accommodate the 200. The whole town will be out to welcome the Oakland boys, and a chicken dinner is being prepared by the town's best cook.

The boys will leave headquarters about 8 o'clock Sunday morning and arrive at Lafayette a little before noon. On arriving, they will hold a track meet among the members, the special event being the one mile run. There will be a 220-yard dash, half-mile run, 100-yard dash, 60-yard dash, shot put, fat man's race, three-legged race and other events. All the winners will be presented with club pins.

It is stated that the Lafayette cook has won first prizes in many exhibitions and fairs. The tramp is being managed by Irving Rice, F. A. Larue, M. Noble, C. Walters and the directors of the club.

Entries Close for A.A.L. Semi-Annual Track Meet

This afternoon will mark the close of entries for the thirty-second semi-annual track meet to be held under the auspices of the Academic Athletic League, Saturday afternoon. Herbert Hauer is conducting the details of the affair, and the games will be held on the University of California oval at 1 o'clock. The early schedule is announced in view of the scheduled intercollegiate baseball game between Stanford and California to be held on the California field at 3 o'clock. The meet for this year will be unlike those held heretofore, in that it will include the competition of the sub-league winners, the championship going to one of the sub-leagues instead of a school, as in the past. From the results of the district meets held during the last two weeks, it is likely that the interior leagues will figure with unusual strength in the distribution of points.

School Fair Proceeds to Go For Lafayette Playgrounds

Tentative plans have been formulated for the entertainment and bazaar to be given by the pupils and teachers of the Lafayette Grammar school, Eighteenth and West streets, April 9, at the school grounds, where the children of the school will hold away upon that occasion. The proceeds of the affair will be given to the fund for furnishing a playground as an important adjunct to the school. The grounds will be open to the public from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. During that interval there will be automobile rides for the little ones and numerous amusements for the boys and girls.

The fête is given under the direction of the mother's club of the Lafayette school, which is headed by Mrs. E. G. Gilbert and with the assistance of Mrs. Otto Schimner, who will supervise a vaudeville performance, which will be a feature of the sale.

Miss Gladys Gerrish will give several vocal selections, which will be one of the interesting stunts of the performance.

The Japanese tea garden will be presided over by Miss Jennie Adelson. She will be assisted by Miss Camelia Steinbeck and Miss Lena Adelson, who will be prettily attired in Oriental costume.

Mrs. E. O. Gilbert will have charge of the automobile rides, which will be one of the delightful sources of recreation for the children, who will be taken sight-seeing.

Among those who will attend to the details of the different booths are Mrs. E. B. Bondel, country store; Mrs. E. I. Knowles, fish pond; Mrs. E. Macdonald, candy booth. Fortune tellers will be impersonated by the teachers of the school; pen and ink artists, which have been made by the deaf and dumb children; Mrs. C. M. Mitchell, cornucopias; plants; Mrs. C. Steinbeck; Mrs. Spencer, peanuts. Ten boys and girls attired in clowns' costume will assist Mrs. Spencer.

TETRAZZINI INJURED
DURING PERFORMANCE

Two Women Drive Off Surveyors With Wicked Looking Shotguns.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—George Arthur Cruz, American citizen and local assistant manager of the Caledonian Insurance Company, was married yesterday in New York. The bride was Miss Florence Woods, daughter of the late Dr. George G. Woods, United States Navy, and a niece of the late Admiral Baldwin, U. S. N.

Miss Woods made the citizenship of her husband-to-be a sine qua non of her betrothal and to meet her wishes Cruz, who formerly was of Kent, England, before his departure for New York, completed his naturalization, which he had begun twenty-four years before by taking out first papers.

The wedding was celebrated in St. Patrick's cathedral, New York. Miss Woods was unattended. Her cousin, Charles A. Baldwin, escorted her to the altar. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John P. Childwick, who was also celebrating the nuptial mass. This was followed by a reception and banquet at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Mrs. Baldwin, No. 4 West Forty-ninth street.

Tetrazzini Injured

BOSTON, March 30.—Mme. Tetrazzini of the Manhattan Opera Company sustained a slight injury last night during the performance of Lucia at the Boston Opera House. It was at the end of the first act of the second act, Tetrazzini, with Poole, who took the part of Adorno, was responding to a curtain call. The curtain descended ahead of time and, seeing the danger, jumped back and tried to drag the prima donna out of harm's way. He was too late, however, for the base of the curtain struck her on the wrist. A spasm of pain passed over her face and the audience thought she would be unable to continue, but she finished the opera.

Mrs. Cleveland Literary

NEW YORK, March 30.—Announcement of a $50,000 gift by Andrew Carnegie to build a library, to be called the Frances Folson Cleveland Library, in honor of Cleveland's widow, was announced today at the seventh annual reunion of the Wells College Alumni. Mrs. Cleveland is a member of the association.

Divorcees Present

RENO, March 30.—The opening last night of the new Majestic theater was made particularly notable by the representation of the local divorce colony, it being estimated that not less than 150 members of this portion of Reno's population were present. There was a lavish display of beautiful gowns and jewels.

Among the prominent ones was Mrs. Smith Hollins McKim, the wife of the late Brock King Emerson. Son-in-law of Joseph P. Gattins, the millionaire of Atlanta. The box adjoining was occupied by Virginia Harned Southern, Miss Margaret Gordon, her actress companion, and party.

In another box sat Mrs. E. Rollins Walker, wife of a New York broker; Mrs. L. Well, wife of a Judge of the municipal court; Mrs. C. Lewis, and her mother, Mrs. David Davis, and her son, Mrs. William Bissell, wife of a Buffalo bacteriologist; Mrs. James N. Moore, a Chicago lumber merchant's wife, whose young daughter felt here here to go upon the stage; Mrs. Cornelius W. Vanvorhies of Fort Chester, N. Y.; Mrs. Frank A. Usher, an artist of Birmingham, England.

Bandmaster Divorced

SEATTLE, March 30.—Mrs. Mary Macaulay Gargullo was granted a divorce by the Superior Court here today from Enrico Nicolo Gargullo, a bandmaster of Denver. Mrs. Gargullo, who is the heir to a fortune of about $100,000, had met the bandmaster while she was attending school in Washington, D. C., and Gargullo was giving concerts there. The couple were married in Philadelphia, June 10, 1904. The divorce was asked for on charges of abandonment and cruelty. Mrs. Gargullo was given the custody of the child, a 3-year-old boy. No alimony was allowed.

Women Use Guns

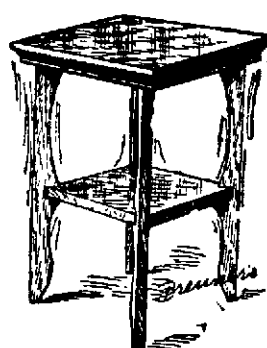

WALLA WALLA, Wash., March 30.—Surveyors in the employ of the State were driven off the farms of Mrs. Lewis Windul and Mrs. Peter Swanson near Dayton, Wash., last night by the two women, who carried shotguns. Objections to the survey of the State highway through their properties from Dayton to Walla Walla were raised by the owners. An injunction was procured by the State employees today restraining the women from further interference, but feeling among the farmers against the surveyors is intense and it is feared when the work is resumed.

APPLICATION TO MORTGAGE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Jennie C. Dunphy, the administratrix of the estate of William Dunphy and the guardian of James Clay Dunphy, has applied for permission to mortgage the family residence on Washington and Octavia street for $45,000. Judge Graham set the hearing of the application for April 28. The application has been aroused that James Clay has involved the family in some new financial entanglement through another of his escapades.

Sues Brewing Company For Death of Husband

Mrs. John M. Raible has instituted suit in the superior court against the Oakland Brewing and Malting Company for the death of her husband, who was asphyxiated in a beer vat at the corporation's brewing plant on the 7th day of last October.

Raible was in the employ of the brewery and in her complaint the widow alleged that he was ordered to clean the interior of a vat with a compound which, when applied, throws off poisonous fumes, but that Raible was not warned to be on his guard against the fumes. As a result he was suffocated in the limited air space of the vat.
